DIAMOND VISION

YANKEES WILL REMAIN "BRONX BOMBERS" IN STATE-OF-THE-ART NEW YANKEE STADIUM

The Yankees are moving—to the Bronx.

In conjunction with New York City and New York State, the most prestigious franchise in sports announced in June that it had reached agreement to build a new $800-million stadium in Macombs Dam and John Mullaly parks, which are located a mere fly ball from Yankee Stadium.

Since the Bombers moved to Yankee Stadium in 1923, they have set the standard for excellence among all sports franchises. So is it any surprise that their exit from "The House That Ruth Built" appears to be as perfect a transition as was their entrance into baseball's hallowed house?

Not really. After all, they're the New York Yankees. And the Yankee Stadium that we all knew so well isn't going anywhere.

"We are standing here at the great cathedral of baseball," Yankees President Randy Levine said from Yankee Stadium during a historic press conference on June 15, 2005. "We love this place. We honor its memories. Today's announcement is not the end of a legacy, it's the continuation of one."

Yankees Principal Owner George Steinbrenner is joined by New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg (left) and New York Governor George Pataki as they admire the future home of the Yankees.

RINGTHEBELL22 on Archive.org

"This is a great heritage," Yankees Principal Owner George Steinbrenner said. "We love the Bronx."

The ballclub's new stadium and current home will only be separated by a one-block plaza. And the Bombers' short-distance move will ensure that their nickname—along with their tradition—will remain tied to the neighborhood where they blossomed. "We wanted to stay in the Bronx and do the job for the Bronx," Steinbrenner proudly stated.

"We're continuing the Yankee tradition in the Bronx," Levine concurred.

"How great is it that this symbol of New York is going to be in the Bronx for a long time to come?" New York Governor George Pataki asked. "They're not the Westchester Bombers. They're not the Manhattan Bombers. They're not the New Jersey Bombers. They're the Bronx Bombers, and they're going to be in the Bronx for a long time."

Although the Yankees aren't leaving the South Bronx, the area surrounding Yankee Stadium will be changing drastically.

"To replace the open space [where the new ballpark will be located], and create even more space, the city will spend $135 million to develop 28 acres of new parks and sports facilities," New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg said. "The proposed recreation facilities will be a dramatic improvement over the ones that currently sit in the shadows of the Stadium. We will create a new softball field and Little League field in the shell of the old stadium. We will build tennis and handball courts and a new basketball court with bleachers, along with a new soccer field with a running track and seating for spectators.

"I'm thrilled that we have come to this agreement to build this stunning new stadium as well as public parks and recreational facilities that will continue to drive the incredible renaissance that will take place in the South Bronx," continued the mayor.

Levine lauded the cooperation of an array of government and civic leaders including Pataki, Bloomberg, Bronx Borough president Adolfo Carrión, city councilman Joel Rivera, city council speaker Gifford Miller, assembly speaker Sheldon Silver, senate majority leader Joseph Bruno and all elected officials from the Bronx, city and state.

New Yankee Stadium's look is magnificent and it's hard to imagine that its combination of modern amenities and throwback feel will be equaled anywhere baseball is played.

The appearance of the new stadium will be reminiscent of Yankee Stadium circa 1923. The original façade will be replicated and it's exterior will include limestone-based arches and a grand entrance. The classic rooftop frieze that was a part of the old building from 1923 through 1973 will be a sight that Yankees fans will see again. And the bullpens will be in right-center field and left-center field, just as the case was in the original Yankee Stadium.

"When [the Stadium] was renovated, it lost many of the great characteristics of the original House That Ruth Built," Levine explained. "The new stadium takes us back to our origins, the original stadium."

One of the most recognizable aspects of Yankee Stadium—pre-renovation and post-renovation—will also be a part of the new ballpark. The field dimensions will not change. Lefthanded batters will continue to salivate over the short porch in right.

Additionally, New Yankee Stadium will celebrate the great contributions of its legends, as Monument Park will be a part of its ambience.

"I'm especially pleased that the plans call for rebuilding Monument Park in the new stadium," Bloomberg said. "Future generations can learn about Ruth, Gehrig, DiMaggio, Mantle and Munson—the legends that really built this club and helped bring an unmistakable swagger to our city's step."

As for the modern amenities that the new stadium will feature, the ideas of Yankees brass coupled with the architectural wisdom of Hellmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK Sport + Venue + Event)—who were also the architects of present-day gems such as Baltimore's Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Cleveland's Jacobs Field and Philadelphia's Citizens Bank Park—have redefined the term state-of-the-art.

"Today, with technology and everything they do building stadiums, I'm sure it will be impressive," Joe Torre said. "Just from the looks of it, it looks like it's going to be a classy joint. It looks like a special place."

One difference between the Yanks' current and future dwellings is the seating configuration. But it's a difference that even the traditionalist in all of us will be okay with. In the current stadium, the upper bowl holds approximately 30,000 seats, while the lower bowl holds about 20,000 seats. The seating chart of the new park will read the opposite way—about 32,000 seats in the lower bowl and about 20,000 seats in the upper tank.

The maximum capacity of New Yankee Stadium, which is being developed by Tishman Speyer Properties, will be between 50,800 and 54,000.

So the long-awaited announcement has been made and the ground that covers Macombs Dam Park will likely be broken this spring.

"I think it's a great day," Derek Jeter said when the new Yankee Stadium was announced. "There's a lot of history here. There are a lot of good memories here. Now we'll try to take them across the street."

Nothing says springtime like pinstripes.

ON THE COVER

In 2005, Alex Rodriguez became the 12th Yankee to be recognized with the American League's Most Valuable Player Award—as selected by the Baseball Writers' Association of America—and the first since Don Mattingly in 1985. The 12 Yankee players have won a total of 19 MVP awards, the highest total of any Major-League team. (Only the St. Louis Cardinals, with 13, have had more different players win the honor.) Pictured from lower left are: Yogi Berra (1951, 1954-55), Joe DiMaggio (1939, 1941, 1947), Thurman Munson (1976), Elston Howard (1963), Don Mattingly (1985), Spud Chandler (1943), Babe Ruth (1923 pre-BBWAA), Mickey Mantle (1956-57, 1962), Joe Gordon (1942), Roger Maris (1960-61), Phil Rizzuto (1950), Lou Gehrig (1927 pre-BBWAA, 1936). Ruth won MVP honors prior to the inception of the BBWAA award in 1931—when recipients were only eligible to win the honor once—and is not counted in the club's MVP total.

GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III PRINCIPAL OWNER

George Steinbrenner—the longest tenured owner in Major League Baseball—celebrates his 33rd Anniversary as Principal Owner of the New York Yankees in 2006.

On January 3, 1973, a group formed by Mr. Steinbrenner purchased the Yankees from CBS for a net of $8.7-million. It took just five years for his aggressive leadership to turn the Yankees into World Champions once again. And, in the 33 years in which he has owned the club (1973-2005), the Yankees have posted the highest winning percentage in the Major Leagues at .561 (2,925-2,286) with 10 American-League pennants and six World Championships (also the most in the Majors).

In addition to the team's on-field success, the Yankees have consistently shattered franchise- and league attendance records both at home and on the road. The Yankees became only the second American-League team ever to top the four-million mark in home attendance in 2005 when they drew a league-record 4,090,696. In 2004, they became the first American-League team to top the three-million mark in road attendance (3,308,666). They are also the only Major-League franchise to top the seven-million mark in combined single-season home and road attendance twice (2004 and 2005).

With 33 seasons of ownership now completed, Mr. Steinbrenner's stewardship has exceeded any other Yankee owner by nine years. (Colonel Jacob Ruppert purchased the Yankees with Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston on January 11, 1915, bought out his partner on May 21, 1922 and owned the club for 24 years until his death on January 13, 1939.) In the 33 years in which Mr. Steinbrenner has owned the Yankees, the other 29 clubs have had 99 owners or ownership groups while the Yankees have had just one.

Mr. Steinbrenner's success in the sports world began at an early age. He was a multi-sport athlete at Culver Military Academy, where he is in the Athletic Hall of Fame, and at Williams College. He began his coaching career as an assistant football coach at two Big Ten schools, Northwestern and Purdue, and followed that by assembling championship basketball teams in both the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues. In 2002, he was honored with the prestigious Gold Medal Award from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame for a lifetime of "outstanding commitment, dedication and dynamic leadership in both his business and personal lives." It is the highest and most prestigious award bestowed by the College Football Foundation.

Mr. Steinbrenner has probably devoted as much time and effort to the U.S. Olympic Committee as he has to his many other sporting endeavors. He has served on the NCAA Foundation Board of Trustees since 1990, was Chairman of the U.S.O.C. Foundation (1997-2002) as well as the Olympic Overview Commission (1988-89), which was created to evaluate the structure and efforts of the United States Olympic program. He also served as Vice President of the U.S. Olympic Committee (1989-96) and has been honored with both the General Douglas MacArthur USOC Foremost Award and the F. Don Miller United States Olympic Award.

In 1997, Mr. Steinbrenner was honored as "Outstanding New Yorker" and was named Tampa's "Citizen-of-the-Year" in 1998. He was also named the Number One "Most Powerful Man in Sports" for 2002 by The Sporting News.

Mr. Steinbrenner currently serves as a trustee for the NCAA Foundation and is also a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors.

HAROLD Z. (HAL) STEINBRENNER GENERAL PARTNER

Hal Steinbrenner begins his 16th season with the New York Yankee organization in 2006 and his 11th as General Partner. The 37-year-old son of Principal Owner George Steinbrenner was elected General Partner by the New York Yankees Partnership in 1996. With General Partner Steve Swindal, his responsibilities include overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations.

Mr. Steinbrenner is Chairman and CEO of Steinbrenner Hotel Properties, which is a family owned company, and holds a seat on the Board of Directors for the Boys and Girls Club of Tampa Bay as well as the Florida State Fair.

Mr. Steinbrenner attended Culver Military Academy and went on to graduate from Williams College in 1991 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He also earned a Masters degree in Business Administration at the University of Florida in 1994.

Mr. Steinbrenner and his wife, Christina, reside in Tampa, FL.

STEPHEN W. (STEVE) SWINDAL GENERAL PARTNER

Steve Swindal begins his ninth full season as General Partner of the New York Yankees in 2006. He was elected General Partner by the New York Yankees Partnership in 1998 and—with General Partner Hal Steinbrenner—his responsibilities include overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations. He is also a member of Major League Baseball's Ownership Committee .

Mr. Swindal is a member of the Board of Directors of the YES Network and an officer of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Swindal was Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Bay Transportation Corporation—a towing company specializing in harbor towing and ship assist work in various ports in the United States—from 1987 to 1997.

A native of Tampa, FL, Mr. Swindal returned to the Bay area after graduating from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1976 and worked for the family business, Swindal-Powell Wholesale Furniture Company, until 1984.

Mr. Swindal, 51, is very active in the Tampa Bay area, holding board positions for the Salvation Army and Gold Shield Foundation.

He, his wife, Jennifer, and their two children reside in Tampa, FL.

FELIX M. LOPEZ, Jr. SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

Felix M. Lopez, Jr. begins his second season as a Senior Vice President with the New York Yankees in 2006. His responsibilities include overseeing everyday operations of Legends Field, the Himes Player Development complex and the Class-A Tampa Yankees.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Lopez was the president and owner of Architecture Design Construction, Inc., a company specializing in commercial construction in the southeastern United States.

Born on April 1, 1954 in Havana, Cuba, Mr. Lopez moved to Tampa, Florida, in 1969 and later was graduated from Cam Tech School of Construction. He is a member of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Florida and is also very active with the Police Athletic League (PAL).

Mr. Lopez and his wife, Jessica, reside in Tampa, Florida.

RANDY LEVINE PRESIDENT

Randy Levine begins his seventh season as President of the New York Yankees in 2006. He was named to his position in January, 2000, becoming the first person to hold the post with the club since 1986.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Levine served as New York City's Deputy Mayor for Economic Development, Planning and Administration. He also served as New York City's Labor Commissioner.

From 1995 through 1997, Mr. Levine was Chief Negotiator for Major League Baseball and served as Director of the Player Relations Committee. Prior to that Mr. Levine served as Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General and Principal Deputy Attorney General at the United States Department of Justice. He has also served as a special delegate to the United States Department of Labor and was a board member for the Hudson River Park.

Mr. Levine has served on the Boards of Directors of the New Jersey Nets and New Jersey Devils and is a member of the Board of Directors of the YES Network. He is also an officer of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC.

Mr. Levine has been a partner in the New York law firm of Proskauer Rose Goetz and Mendelson and is presently Senior Counsel at the law firm of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer and Feld.

Born on February 22, 1955 in Brooklyn, NY, Mr. Levine received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from George Washington University in 1977 and his J.D. from Hofstra University School of Law in 1980. Mr. Levine and his wife, Mindy, reside in Manhattan.

LONN A. TROST CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Lonn Trost begins his seventh season as Chief Operating Officer of the New York Yankees in 2006. He was named to the position on January 10, 2000 after serving as the club's Executive Vice President and General Counsel since 1997.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Trost was a partner and member of the Executive Committee of the law firm of Shea and Gould from 1972 to 1994 and was a partner at the New York law firm of Herrick, Feinstein from 1994 through 1997. In his legal career with the two New York law firms, he served as outside general counsel for numerous sports franchises, institutions and agents. Among his clients were the New York Yankees and Mets, the New Jersey Nets and Devils, the National Baseball Hall of Fame, Little League Baseball and TCI Cable.

Mr. Trost is a member of the Board of Directors of the YES Network and an officer of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC.

Born on May 8, 1945, Mr. Trost began his legal career in 1971 with the United States Justice Department, Office of Chief Counsel (Treasury Department). A 1968 graduate of Hunter College (Bronx, NY), Mr. Trost received his J.D. from Brooklyn Law School in 1971. He resides in Monroe Township, NJ, with his wife, Carol. They have two children, Evan and Audra.

BRIAN CASHMAN SENIOR V.P. AND GENERAL MANAGER

Brian McGuire Cashman has literally grown up with the Yankees, moving from the baseball equivalents of the "mail room" to the "board room" over the past 20 seasons.

Mr. Cashman joined the Yankees—at age 19—in June, 1986 as an Intern in the club's Minor League and Scouting Department. On February 3, 1998, Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner gave him the opportunity—at age 31—to become the second-youngest General Manager in Baseball history. Now in his ninth season, Cashman is the longest-tenured GM under Mr. Steinbrenner.

In a franchise marked by milestones, Cashman has carried on the winning tradition of the Yankees. In his first season (1998), he became the youngest GM to win a World Series and went on to become the only GM in baseball history to win World Championships in each of his first three seasons (1998-2000). He is also only the third GM in baseball history to win at least four consecutive League Championships and was the first to do it in his first four seasons (1998-2001). Only former Yankee General Managers Ed Barrow (four straight, 1936-39) and George Weiss (five straight, 1949-53) have also achieved the feat.

Cashman is the only General Manager in Major League history to guide a team to division- or league titles in each of his first eight seasons from 1998-2005. During that span, the Yankees have compiled a cumulative record of 794-498—the best winning percentage (.615) in the Major Leagues during that period. According to Baseball America, it is also the highest lifetime winning percentage of any General Manager since 1950 (minimum five seasons).

During his tenure, the Yankees have established franchise attendance records six times—in 1998, 1999, 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005. They are the only New York franchise ever to top the three-million mark seven times (1999-2005) and, in 2005, established the American League's single-season home attendance record (4,090,696). In 2005, the Yankees also became the first Major-League franchise to top the seven-million mark in combined single-season home and road attendance twice (also 2004).

As General Manager of the Yankees, Cashman has been involved in 81 Major League free-agent signings and 65 trades involving 173 players. Notable among these signings are Johnny Damon, Jason Giambi, Orlando Hernandez, Jon Lieber, Hideki Matsui, Mike Mussina, Alfonso Soriano and Carl Pavano. Some of the most strategically important trade acquisitions include Aaron Boone, Roger Clemens, David Justice, Chuck Knoblauch and Alex Rodriguez. There have been three women in Major League history to hold the position of Assistant General Manager and Cashman has hired two of them: Jean Afterman, the Yankees' current Vice President and Assistant General Manager; and Kim Ng, who is currently Vice President and Assistant General Manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Yankees and Mr. Cashman. He has been honored as "Executive of the Year" three times: by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA in 2000; and in 1999 and 2003 by the New Jersey Sportswriters' Association. The Yankees earned ESPY awards—presented by ESPN—as "Outstanding Team of the Year" in both 1998 and 2000 and they have also been named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and by USA Today in 1999. In 2001, the Yankees GM received his third consecutive "40 Under 40" Award presented by The Sports Business Journal to recognize the top 40 people under the age of 40 who have made the greatest impact in the sports business industry. It was his final year of eligibility for the award and he has since been inducted into the publication's "40 Under 40" Hall of Fame. In 2003, Cashman was honored by the Latino Sports Writers and Broadcasters with their annual "Latino Achievement Award" for his contributions to the Latin media. He was most recently honored with the 2005 "Ossie Davis Award for Inspirational Leadership," awarded each year to a key leader in an organization that works to promote opportunity in diversity.

On February 11, 2004, Cashman was given the honor of ringing the opening bell at the New York Stock Exchange. (The market closed at 10,737.70 on that day, its highest close since June 13, 2001.)

He was heavily involved in bringing the Yankees to Tokyo for "Opening Series 2004" to honor the 70th Anniversary of Major League Baseball's historic tour of Japan (which included Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig).

Upon graduation from Catholic University in Washington, D.C. in June 1989, Cashman became a full-time Assistant in Baseball Operations for the Yankees. He was later promoted and transferred to Tampa, Florida, where he served as the Assistant Farm Director from 1990 to 1992. He returned to New York and became Assistant General Manager, Baseball Administration in November 1992.

Born on July 3, 1967 in Rockville Center, NY, Cashman grew up in Lexington, KY. He attended Georgetown Prep in Rockville, MD, before attending Catholic University in Washington, D.C. to major in history and play intercollegiate baseball. His love for baseball developed when long-time family friends (former Brooklyn Dodger) Ralph and Ann Branca arranged for him to serve as bat boy for the Los Angeles Dodgers in spring training in 1982.

He and his wife, Mary, have a daughter, Grace Eva, and a son, Theodore John.

MARK NEWMAN SENIOR V.P., BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Mark Newman begins his seventh season as the Yankees' Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations in 2006 and his 18th season with the Yankees. Prior to being named to his current position in 2000, Mr. Newman served as the club's Vice President of Player Development and Scouting from 1997 through 1999.

During his tenure, the Yankees' Player Development System has been recognized for producing "home-grown" talent including All-Stars Derek Jeter, Andy Pettitte, Jorge Posada, Mariano Rivera, Alfonso Soriano and Bernie Williams. The Yankees were selected the 1998 "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America and the 1999 "Organization of the Year" by USA Today, designations which go to the organization with the most prospects. In addition to appearing in post-season play for 11 consecutive seasons (1995-2005), the Yankees are one of only two teams whose minor-league affiliates have posted winning records in each of the last 16 seasons since 1990 (also Cleveland Indians).

Mr. Newman began his career in the Yankee organization in 1989 as Coordinator of Instruction and served in that position until his promotion to Director of Player Development and Scouting in 1996. He was named Vice President of Player Development and Scouting in 1997. In his first role with the club, he oversaw all managers and coaches in the farm system and planned both Major and Minor League spring training.

In 1972, Mr. Newman began a baseball coaching career at 22 years old as pitching coach for Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, IL. After spending nine successful seasons there—during which he earned his law degree with honors—he was named Head Baseball Coach at Old Dominion University in 1981. Mr. Newman's impressive 321-167-3 record in nine seasons was recognized with his induction into the ODU Hall of Fame in 1997. He was inducted into the SIU Hall of Fame in 2000.

JEAN AFTERMAN V.P., ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Jean Afterman begins her fifth season as the Yankees' Assistant General Manager (fourth as Vice President) in 2006 and is only the third female to hold such a position in Major League Baseball (second with the Yankees). In 2001, she succeeded Kim Ng, who was Baseball's second female Assistant General Manager from 1998 through 2001.

In her first year with the Yankees, Ms. Afterman was instrumental in developing the club's relationship with the Yomiuri Giants of the Japan Central League and the signing of three-time Central-League Most Valuable Player Hideki Matsui. She continues to be an integral part of the Yankees presence in Asia.

In 2004, Ms. Afterman was named one of the "Power 100" by The Sporting News and was also selected as one of the "50 Most Powerful Women in New York" by the New York Post in 2003.

Ms. Afterman joined the Yankees with a diverse business and legal background, including corporate-, labor- and immigration law as well as international sports and licensing with an emphasis on US-Japan issues. She has traveled and lectured in Japan on business issues and, in 1996, Ms. Afterman was appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture to a federal advisory committee, the National Organic Standards Board. Prior to joining the Yankees, Ms. Afterman managed her own practice, providing athletic representation and management with a specialization in arbitration proceedings.

From 1994 to 1999, she was General Counsel at KDN Sports, Inc. and handled business and legal affairs for international baseball clients which included Hideo Nomo, Hideki Irabu, Masato Yoshii, Alfonso Soriano and more than 30 other Major- and Minor-League players.

Ms. Afterman graduated from the University of California at Berkeley in 1979 and was the recipient of the Rosalynn Schneider Eisner and the Mark Goodson Scholarship Grant. She received her J. D. from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 1991.

TRIPLE PLAYS

Entering the 2006 season, the Yankees have gone 5,970 regular-season games without turning a triple play...the Yankees have turned 21 triple plays in their history, the last one coming on 6/3/68 vs. Minnesota (Womack-Cox-Mantle)...the last triple play turned by an opponent came on 5/29/00 vs. Oakland when, with Tino Martinez on first and Jorge Posada on second, Shane Spencer lined out to second baseman Randy Velarde for the first out, he then tagged Martinez who was running on the pitch and then stepped on second base to force out Posada. It was the 11th unassisted triple play in Major League history and the first against the Yankees.

RECAP: The Yankees opened the 2005 postseason without home-field advantage for the first time since the 2001 World Series, but it didn't seem to bother the American League Eastern Division Champions. The Yankees took the lead early, as Robinson Cano's first career post-season hit, a three-run double in the first inning, proved to be the game-winner. Mariano Rivera recorded his 33rd career post-season save, despite allowing one run in the ninth. The run was just the second earned run allowed by Rivera in 40.0 Division Series' innings pitched. The win snapped the Yankees' four-game postseason losing streak, dating back to the 2004 ALCS.

RECAP: Game Two of the Division Series showcased some of the young talent that helped the Yankees throughout the 2005 campaign. At 25 years, 188 days, Chien-Ming Wang became the youngest pitcher to start a post-season game for the Yankees since Andy Pettitte started Game 5 of 1997 ALDS at 25 years, 113 days. Wang surrendered just one earned run in 6.2 innings in his first career post-season appearance. Another rookie, Robinson Cano, drove in his fourth run of the series to lead the Yankees' offense. Unfortunately, three defensive errors led to three unearned runs and the Yankees fell short, 5-3.

RECAP: Randy Johnson allowed five runs in just three innings in his Yankees' postseason debut, marking the shortest postseason start of his career. The Yankees came back to score six unanswered runs in the fourth and fifth innings, but fell short in the end. Aaron Small suffered the loss for the Yankees in his first career postseason appearance. Yankee pitchers allowed a total of 19 hits in the game, the most hits allowed in a postseason game since Game Six of the 2001 World Series when they allowed 22. John Flaherty started at catcher for the Yankees, ending Jorge Posada's streak of 68 consecutive postseason starts behind the dish (since Game Four of the 1999 World Series vs. Atlanta). The loss was the Yankees' third straight post-season defeat at Yankee Stadium, including Games Six and Seven of the 2004 ALCS vs. Boston.

RECAP: Trailing 2-1 entering the bottom of the seventh inning, Ruben Sierra and Derek Jeter added a pair of RBI in the frame to help lead the Yankees to a 3-2 come-from-behind win and tie the series at two games apiece. Shawn Chacon started the game, making his first career post-season appearance and veteran Al Leiter appeared in relief, recording his second career post-season victory and his first since Game One of the 1993 World Series with Toronto (also in relief). Mariano Rivera tossed two scoreless innings of relief to hold back the Angels' offense and record the save.

RECAP: Following a long season filled with comebacks and unlikely heroes, the Yankees' 2005 campaign came to an end in disappointing fashion. Despite taking an early two-run lead against their west-coast rivals, the Yankees allowed five runs in the second and third innings and were defeated by the Angels in the decisive Game 5 of the American League Division Series, 5-3. The loss marked the second time in four years that the Yankees' season ended at Angel Stadium (also 2002). The Angels scored five times against Mike Mussina in the second and third innings while rookie Ervin Santana shut down the Yankees' offense in relief of an injured Bartolo Colon to earn the win.

2004: Made the transition to a closer during the off-season and responded with 35 saves, ninth most in the National League and second most in Rockies history behind only Jose Jimenez's 41 in 2002...entered the season having never made a Major League relief appearance in his career (71 starts)...only two other pitchers in Major League history have recorded 30 saves in a single season after entering that particular year with no big league relief appearances; Billy Koch (31) with Toronto in 1999 and Kaz Sasaki (37) with Seattle in 2000...blew nine save chances, tied for the league lead and second most in the Majors behind Detroit's Esteban Yan (10)...appeared in a team-high 66 games, going 1-9 with a 7.11 ERA...became the first closer in Major League history to save 20 or more games with an ERA above 7.00...only two other players to even post a 6.00 ERA or higher with at least 20 saves was Jose Mesa (24 saves, 6.52) and Mike Williams (28 saves, 6.14), both with Philadelphia in 2003...allowed 128 baserunners in 63.1 IP, which included 71 hits and 52 walks with only 52 strikeouts...he worked a 1-2-3 inning just eight times in 66 appearances, including just six 1-2-3 saves...lefties batted .236, while righties hit .326...made his first career relief appearance on Opening Day, 4/6 at Arizona...prior to that, his only other professional relief appearance came with Single-A Asheville on 7/9/97...suffered a blown save in his first save opportunity on 4/8 at Bank One, allowing a two-run homer to Richie Sexson in the 11th inning for a 6-5 D'Backs victory...recorded his first career save in Colorado's 4-2 win at Dodger Stadium on 4/11...rattled off eight consecutive saves from 4/11-5/8 and allowed just two runs over a span of 13 appearances (13.1 IP) from 4/12–5/16 (1.35 ERA)...at the time, was a perfect 6-for-6 in save opportunities at Coors Field with a 1.08 ERA (8.1 IP, 1 ER)...blew his first save chance at Coors on 5/27 vs. San Diego, allowing a game-tying two-run HR by Khalil Greene in the ninth...had a combined five blown saves in May and June, including a 6/20 outing vs. Baltimore in which he allowed a two-out grand slam to Brian Roberts in the ninth inning that turned a 2-0 Rockies lead into a 4-2 loss...picked up the victory on 7/2 vs. Detroit, his first win since 6/23/03, snapping a 10-game losing streak covering 41 appearances...recorded five saves during interleague play, tied for third in baseball behind Eric Gagne and Joe Nathan (both 6)...earned his 20th save in his final appearance before the All-Star Break on 7/9 at San Diego...joined Jose Jimenez (23 in 2002) as the only pitchers in team history to record 20 saves by the break...was 9-of-10 in save chances in July...converted a season-best nine consecutive save opportunities from 8/6–9/9...recorded his 30th save on 8/17 vs. the Mets and then passed Dave Veres (31 in 1999) for second place in team history with his 32nd rescue on 9/2 at San Francisco...earned his 35th and final save on 9/22 vs. Arizona.

2003: Enjoyed a first half unlike any pitcher in franchise history, earning his first All-Star berth and joining Mike Hampton (2001) as the only Rockies hurlers to ever make the All-Star Team...would have had a shot at starting the 74th Mid-Summer Classic in Chicago but inflammation in his right elbow forced him to miss his final two starts and subsequently the All-Star Game...it was that very same elbow injury which limited him to just six starts during the second half and eventually ended his season in mid-August...still set a career high with 11 wins, going 11-8 with a 4.60 ERA in 23 starting assignments...nearly doubled his previous best of six wins set in 2001...all 11 victories came before the break, which set a franchise record for most first half wins...led Rockies starters in ERA and average against (.243) and his 93 strikeouts trailed only Jason Jennings (119)...was outstanding within the division, going 8-1 with a 1.77 ERA in 10 starts vs. the NL West (66.0 IP, 13 ER)...that .889 intra-divisional winning percentage led all Major League starters with a minimum of nine decisions...began the year 6-0 with a 2.61 ERA in his first eight starts at Coors Field while the Rockies were 8-0...but then lost three of his last four in Denver to finish 7-3...started all three of Colorado's combined shutouts at Coors...club was 13-3 in his first 16 starts overall but wound up losing each of the last seven times he took the hill to fall to 13-10 (9-3 at home)...went to spring training in a battle for a rotation spot but quickly regained that after leading the Cactus League in ERA (1.64) and wins (tie–4)...started the home opener on 4/4 vs. Arizona, defeating the D'Backs 2-1 in front of a packed house...was perfect through 5.1 innings, retiring his first 16 batters faced...fell just two outs shy of equaling the franchise record for consecutive batters retired in one game set by Kevin Jarvis in 2000...a Steve Finley solo-HR was the only run Shawn allowed over 7.0 IP (0BB, 8K)...that first start propelled him to an outstanding April in which he was named National League Pitcher of the Month...was the first Rockies pitcher to ever win the award, leading the NL in ERA (1.04) and average against (.164) while tying for the league lead with a 4-0 record...that ERA actually led all Major League starters in April...allowed only 20H and 9BB while striking out 25 over 34.2 April innings...Todd Helton was named NL Player of the Month and thus the duo became the first teammates to win both monthly awards since Cincinnati's Greg Vaughn and Denny Neagle in 1999...Chacon was the National League Co-Player-of-the-Week along with Sammy Sosa from 4/14-20, the first pitcher in Rockies history to earn that honor as well...won both of his starts during the week, allowing 8 hits and one unearned run in 14.0 innings of work...on 4/15, notched a 12-1 victory at Arizona and helped himself by belting his first career home run off John Patterson in the second inning...earned his career-best seventh win on 5/28 vs. Los Angeles, matching Hampton (2001) as the only Rockies to have sven wins before 6/1...won four consecutive starts from 5/18–6/2, a new career high...became the NL's first 8-game winner by defeating Jason Schmidt 4-1 on 6/2 at Pac Bell...really had only one bad effort during the first half, that coming in game one of a 6/7 doubleheader vs. Kansas City in which he allowed a club-record 12 runs over 3.2 IP...set the team record for most wins before the All-Star Break with his 11th on 6/23 at San Diego...Kevin Ritz held the previous mark when he went 10-5 in 1996...seeking to become the major league's first 12-game winner on 6/29, Shawn gave up 6 runs over 4.0 IP in a 9-0 loss at PNC Park...was placed on the 15-day disabled list two days later with right elbow inflammation...was returned from his rehab assignment and activated off the DL on 7/19...didn't win another game the rest of the year as the Rockies offense averaged just 2 runs per game in his final seven outings (14 total)...was 0-3 in August, the third straight year he's gone winless during that month (was 0-12 in 17 career starts after 7/31)...made his final start of the year on 8/16 at Shea and struggled through elbow pain to work just 1.1 inning while yielding 8 runs...was placed back on 15-day DL on 8/19 (retro to 8/17) through the remainder of the season.

2002: Made his first Opening Day roster and started 21 games for the Rockies before being optioned to Triple-A Colorado Springs on 8/23...struggled down the stretch, going 2-5 with a 7.00 ERA in eight starts after the All-Star Break...entered the season as the No. 4 starter in the Rockies rotation...picked up his first win on 4/10 vs. Houston, allowing 1ER over 6.1IP...the victory was his first since 7/24/01, snapping a six-game losing streak...on 5/8 at Montreal, held the Expos scoreless through 6.0 IP until leaving the game with a strained right pectoral muscle...was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/10 (retro to 5/9)...went on a rehab assignment with Triple-A Colorado Springs and was activated on 6/7...posted a 3.71 ERA in three interleague outings but did not garner a decision...turned in one of his finest career outings on 7/14 at San Francisco, allowing only 3 hits and 1 unearned run over 7.0 innings in an eventual 5-3 victory...from 7/24–8/21, lost five games in six starts, including four straight to close out the year.

2001: Began the year in Triple A Colorado Springs before being called up on 4/29...was placed in the rotation that day vs. the Reds when Mike Hampton missed a start and remained in the rotation for the remainder of the season...set a club-rookie record with 134 strikeouts, besting the 117 fanned by Armando Reynoso in 1993...that strikeout total ranked second among National League rookies and third among all Major League rookies, trailing only Roy Oswalt (144) in the NL and Oswalt and C.C. Sabathia (171) in the Majors...was one of the most active first-year hurlers, as his innings pitched and starts finished second among NL rookies behind Cincinnati's Chris Reitsma...was named Rockies "Rookie of the Year" by the local chapter of the BBWAA...made his Major League debut on 4/29 vs. Cincinnati, allowing 9H and 7ER over 5.1 innings...earned his first Major League victory on 5/10 vs. New York Mets, yielding just 1R (0ER) over 8.0 IP...struck out 13 batters on 6/7 vs. Houston, the second most in club history behind only Darryl Kile's 14 on 8/20/98 at Montreal...it was the most strikeouts for a Colorado pitcher at either Coors Field or Mile High Stadium and the most by any rookie in 2001...recorded his first hit on 6/14 vs. Seattle (single)...tied a club record by allowing 11 ER and 5 HR to Anaheim on 7/8...issued a then career-high 7BB on 8/16 vs. Atlanta...was 0-1 with a 2.52 ERA (25.0 IP, 7 er) in September but left each of his outings tied or in the lead.

2000: In his first season at Double-A, led the Southern League in starts (27), shutouts (3), walks (85) and strikeouts (172)...went 10-10 while posting his lowest career ERA over a full season (3.16)...his 172 K's ranked second among all Double-A pitchers...fanned 8.91 per nine innings, the best mark in the system, third in the league and sixth in all of Double-A...his three shutouts tied for tops in the organization.

1999: Spent the entire season at Single-Salem of the Carolina League, going 5-5 with a 4.13 ERA in 12 starts...held opponents to a .251 average...of 316 batters faced, he allowed only three home runs...dominated left-handed hitters, allowing only two extra-base hits all season (both doubles) and holding them to a .235 mark (23-for-98).

1998: In his first season with Single-A Salem, went 0-4 with a 5.30 ERA in 12 starts...struggled to find his groove over the season's first two months before encountering injury...on 5/26—in his 10th start of the season—strained his right elbow's ulnar collateral ligament and missed the next two months...returned on 7/19, but the elbow flared up again seven days later...Colorado then flew him home in order to rest the elbow before Arizona Instructional League play.

1997: Went 11-7 with a team-leading 3.89 ERA and 149 strikeouts in 28 games (27 starts) with Ashville.

1996: In his first pro season, won the Arizona Rookie League's ERA championship (1.60) in 11 starts despite finishing the season Class-A Portland.

PERSONAL: Chose the Rockies over a college career at Arizona State...led his summer Legion club, Greeley GoJo Sports, to three consecutive state titles...attended Greeley Central High School...during his senior season, he went 10-0 with a 1.51 ERA and two saves, guiding the Wildcats to the state championship game...almost won as many games (10) as earned runs allowed (14)...in January of 2002, Greeley Central retired Chacon's jersey number...he is only the second athlete to have his jersey retired in the 123-year history of the school...while with the Rockies was involved with Denver Action Team, a national youth volunteer initiative organized by the Major League Baseball Players Trust and Volunteers of America...signed by Mike Ericson.

1996: In his first full season in the Majors, batted .291 with 20 HR and 79 RBI in 140 games while starting games at five different positions (LF, 1B, 3B, DH, RF)...by starting 43 games in left, 42 at first and 38 at third, he became the first player in Oakland history to start at least 30 games at three different positions...set what was then an Oakland record with 40 doubles...began the year as the A's first baseman while McGwire was injured and had a 19-game hitting streak in April that had his average at the .344 mark for the month...made his first professional appearance in the outfield with a start in right at Kansas City on 5/4...he then took over as the A's starting third baseman on 5/5, starting 38 of the A's next 47 games at third base due to an injury to Scott Brosius...earned AL Player-of-the-Week honors for the week of 5/6-12 by hitting .538 with 8R, 5 doubles, 1 HR, and 5 RBI...hit the 4,000th home run in Oakland history on 5/17 at Boston off of Tim Wakefield...moved to left field following the return of Brosius and immediately homered in four consecutive games from 6/25-29...had an Oakland record tying five hits on 7/2 at Seattle...was hitting .323 at the All-Star Break but batted just .245 after the break...average was at the .305 mark on 9/10, but he then went 1-for-28 over his final nine games to finish the year at .291...missed the final seven games because of a sprained right wrist.

1995: Made his Major League debut with the A's in 1995 with two separate stints in Oakland...began the year at Triple-A Edmonton but was recalled to Oakland on 5/8 when Mike Bordick was injured...made his Major-League debut that night with a start at DH vs. Texas and picked up his first Major League hit with an eighth inning single off of Roger Pavlik...went 2-for-11 in four games and was optioned back to Edmonton on 5/15 when rosters were cut back to 25...while at Edmonton, he hit .342 with 26 doubles and 41 RBI in 55 games as the Trappers third baseman...came back to Oakland for good on 7/7 and hit his first Major-League home run the next day off of Toronto's David Cone...homered in three consecutive games at Kansas City 8/14-16...injuries limited his playing time over the final six weeks of the season, missing five games with a strained hamstring, seven games with a mild concussion suffered on 8/26 in Boston and the final eight games with a sore right rib cage...split his playing time between third base (26 starts) and first base (20 starts) and he also made two starts at DH...batted .313 with RISP and upping his average from .235 in innings 1-6 to .298 from the seventh inning on...came to the plate 11 times with a runner on third and less than two outs and knocked the runner in 10 times.

1994: Split his year between Double-A Huntsville and Triple-A Tacoma and had his best success at the higher level...opened the year in Huntsville, but when Craig Paquette was promoted from Tacoma to Oakland, Giambi moved up a step in the A's system...spent a month playing at Triple-A then returned to Huntsville on 6/29 when Paquette was optioned down from Oakland...belted two homers on 7/8 at Birmingham...after 18 games in Double-A made his second trip to Tacoma when Paquette fractured his ankle and finished the season there...with Tacoma was 18-for-56 (.321) with runners in scoring position and kicked that up to .346 (9-for-26) with runners in scoring position and two outs...spent the fall playing third base for the Arizona Fall League Champions, the Peoria Javelinas, and hit .283 with two homers and 21 RBI in 39 games.

1993: Played the full year at Single-A Modesto of the California League and was the starting third baseman for the North squad in the California League All-Star Game played in June...went on the disabled list in late July with a sore right thumb and missed nearly a month of the season...finished at .291 on the season with 30 extra-base hits and 60 RBI in 89 games...spent part of the winter playing for the Kauai Emeralds of the Hawaiian League.

1992: Was the A's second round selection but spent most of his summer playing for the U.S.A. Olympic team that competed in Barcelona...returned from the Olympics in late August and was assigned to Single-A Southern Oregon of the Northwest League...in his 13 games at Southern Oregon he hit .317 with three homers and 13 RBI.

PERSONAL: Was signed by Ed Crosby...graduated from South Hills High School (1989) in West Covina...lettered three seasons in baseball, three in basketball and two as a quarterback in football earning all-league honors in each sport...was the league basketball MVP his senior season...drafted by Milwaukee (43rd round) out of high school but elected to attend Long Beach State University where he played baseball and majored in business...was the Big West Conference Freshman of the Year in 1990 and earned all-league first team honors twice...as a sophomore led the Big West Conference in hitting with a .407 average and for his college career hit .397...was a member of the 1991 All-College World Series team....was a member of the bronze medal winning U.S. baseball team at the 1991 Pan Am Games in Havana, Cuba, and a member of the U.S. Olympic club that competed in Barcelona in the summer of 1992...lists off-roading and watching Pro-Wrestling as two of his hobbies...launched "Operation Gumby" in 1999 which reaches out to children across the country to deal with the issue of bed-wetting...is also a spokesman for CAP Cure which helps raise money and awareness in the fight against prostate cancer...received the Dave Stewart Community Service Award and the Fred Hutchinson Award in 2000...is a major contributor to the creation of "The Zone" at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City. The Zone is a state-of-the-art therapeutic play and educational environment for children and families that receive care within the Department of Pediatrics at Mount Sinai...grew up a Yankees fan and his favorite baseball player is Mickey Mantle.

2004: Rebounded from an injury-shortened '03 campaign with another impressive season that garnered him consideration for a sixth Cy Young Award...finished second in the 2004 National-League Cy-Young Award voting after posting a 16-14 record with a 2.60 earned run average and a Major-League leading 290 strikeouts in 35 starts for the Arizona Diamondbacks...was the ninth time in his career that he led the Majors in strikeouts (also 1993-'95, 1998-2002) and his ratio of 10.6 K's per 9-innings was second in the big leagues behind Pittsburgh's Oliver Perez (11.0)...his 2.60 ERA was second best among all Major-League pitchers, behind only San Diego's Jake Peavy (2.27) and he held opposing hitters to a .197 batting average, second only to Minnesota's Johan Santana (.192) among all Major League starters...limited left-handed batters to a .163 average (24-for-147) while righties managed a .204 mark (153-for-751)...his 2.77 road ERA was second in the National League while his 2.47 ERA at Bank One Ballpark was fifth-best among all starters in their home stadium...his victory total was tied for eighth-highest for a pitcher on a team with 100+ losses and he also had the highest win total for a player on a club that lost 110+ contests...his 16 wins accounted for 31% of the Diamondbacks' 51 victories in 2004, the highest percentage of a team's triumphs by a single pitcher since 1980 and the fifth-highest since divisional play began in 1969...charged with 14 losses on the year, he was given 2 runs or less of offensive support in 12 of those defeats...was one of six hurlers to make 35 starts, most in the Majors...tossed 4 complete games, tied for fourth in the National League and tied for seventh in the majors...added 13 more double-digit strikeout games to his career total...now has 204 career games with 10 or more strikeouts, second only to Nolan Ryan's Major-League record 215 and is 134-36 with 34 no decisions in those games...made his sixth consecutive Opening Day start for the Diamondbacks in a 4/6 loss vs. Colorado, his 12th career season-opener...tossed his fifth career two-hitter on 4/16 at San Diego, retiring the last 16 Padre hitters he faced in a 5-0 triumph...also delivered the biggest blow of the game at the plate, hitting a 2-run double in the sixth inning...on 5/18 at Atlanta, recorded the 15th perfect game in modern day regular season history-16th including Don Larsen's work in the 1956 World Series-striking out 13 batters in a 2-0 Arizona victory...it was the first no-hitter in Arizona's 7-year history and first perfect game in the Majors since David Cone did so on 7/18/99 at Yankee Stadium vs. Montreal...was the first in the National League since Montreal's Dennis Martinez did so at Dodger Stadium on 7/28/91...became the oldest pitcher in history to record a perfect game at 40 years, 251 days, beating Cy Young, who was perfect on May 5, 1904, at 37 years and 37 days...also tossed a no-hitter for Seattle in 1990, becoming one of five pitchers to throw a no-hitter in each league, joining Young, Nolan Ryan, Jim Bunning and Hideo Nomo...now has 11 games of two hits or less (two no-hitters, four one-hitters and five two-hitters)...following his perfect game, retired the first six Marlins he faced in a 5/23 win at Florida but Abraham Nunez led off the third with a double to snap streak of 39 consecutive batters retired, two shy of the Major League record set in 1972 by the Giants' Jim Barr...was the third-longest such streak in history, falling an out shy of Tom Browning's 40 in a row in 1988...won six consecutive starts from 5/18-6/13, his longest winning streak since opening the 2002 campaign with six straight triumphs in six April starts...streak ended in 6/18 loss vs. Tampa Bay, beginning a season-ending stretch during which he received three runs or less of support in 18 of his final 21 starts...on 6/29 vs. San Diego, became the fourth member of the 4,000-K Club, fanning the Padres' Jeff Cirillo on his final pitch of the evening for the milestone strikeout...was the quickest pitcher to record 4,000 strikeouts, needing 607.1 fewer innings than the previous fastest, who was Ryan when he notched his 4,000th on 7/11/85...to reach 4,000 strikeouts, Johnson totaled over 900 fewer frames than Roger Clemens and an astonishing 1,750 less than Steve Carlton...was 1-5 with a 2.81 ERA over 9 starts from 6/18-7/30...was named to his 10th career All-Star Game and allowed three hits with one strikeout on 7/13 at Minute Maid Park in Houston...after opening the month with a victory, he was 0-3 in his last 5 starts during July, tossing a combined 15.0 shutout frames in a pair of no decisions on July 15 and 25...was 2-3 with a 2.45 ERA during August, including double-digit strikeout totals in four straight starts from 8/15-31...recorded a season-high 15 strikeouts on 8/31 vs. Los Angeles, his 29th career game with at least 15 strikeouts...celebrated his 41st birthday by recording a 2-1 win vs. San Francisco on 9/10, his 100th career win as a member of the Diamondbacks and most in franchise history...became the most prolific left-handed strikeout pitcher in Major League history on 9/15 vs. Colorado, passing Steve Carlton and moving into third-place on the all-time strikeout list (4,136)...tied Carlton with his fifth-inning strikeout of Brad Hawpe, then passed him when Vinny Castilla fanned in the seventh...was Johnson's 31st career game with 10+ strikeouts and no walks...closed the season by going 4-1 with a 1.46 ERA over his final 5 starts...was chosen by the Arizona Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America as the Diamondbacks' Most Valuable Player and Most Valuable Pitcher, the first player to win both awards...completed his tenure in Arizona with a 103-49 record (.678)...with Arizona, totaled 1,832 strikeouts in 1,389.2 innings for a 11.9 strikeout per nine-innings ratio.

2003: Was limited to 18 starts due to an injured right knee that sent him to the disabled list twice, including a stint after it was surgically repaired...finished the year 6-8, only his third career season with a winning percentage below .500 (also 1989 with Montreal and 1992 with Seattle)...the injury snapped his streak of six straight seasons of at least 200.0 innings pitched and broke a Major-League record string of five consecutive years with 300 strikeouts...had five starts with at least 10 strikeouts, raising his career total to 191 career double-digit K games, 24 shy of Nolan Ryan's major league record 215...recorded his first career Opening Day setback in 11 starts on 3/31 vs. Los Angeles, dropping an 8-0 decision to the Dodgers...absorbed another defeat on 4/11 vs. Milwaukee, surrendering 10 earned runs in an 11-7 Brewers' win...was his highest run-allowed total since 4/10/94 with Seattle when the Toronto Blue Jays scored 11 runs (10 earned) in a 12-6 contest...was 0-2 with an 8.31 ERA through his first three starts, allowing 16 earned runs in 17.1 innings before going on the 15-day disabled list for the first time on 4/12 due to swelling in his knee...was his first disablement since 1996 with Seattle...was sidelined until the second game of a doubleheader on 4/27 at Shea Stadium, returning to strike out 12 batters over 6.0 innings in a 7-3 Arizona win...helped the Arizona staff record 27 strikeouts on the day, a Major League record for strikeouts during a doubleheader...was put back on the 15-day disabled list the following day (4/28)...underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee on 5/1 by team orthopedist Dr. Michael Lee and was transferred to the 60-day disabled list on 6/23...made a trio of minor league rehab starts, one each for Triple-A Tucson, Double-A El Paso and Class-A Lancaster, going a combined 0-1 with a 2.57 ERA, striking out 15 and walking only one over 14.0 innings...after missing 12 weeks of Major League action, was reinstated from the disabled list on 7/20...in his first 3 starts back, went 0-2 despite posting a miniscule 0.90 ERA...in his first game back on 7/20 at San Diego, dropped a 3-2 decision, allowing two runs (one earned) over 6.0 innings...on 7/25 vs. Los Angeles, allowed only a second inning home run to Jeromy Burnitz in a 15-inning, 2-1 Arizona victory...recorded back-to-back wins on 8/5 vs. Montreal and 8/10 vs. NY Mets...recorded his 1,500th strikeout as a Diamondback on 8/30 vs. San Francisco, joining Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers with at least 1,500 K's with 2 different clubs...fanned 2,162 as a member of the Mariners, then after an abbreviated stint with Houston, has since recorded 1,542 with Arizona...Ryan fanned 2,416 with the Angels, then posted 1,866 strikeouts with Astros on the way to 5,714 lifetime strikeouts...matched up against a pitcher nearly half his age at Los Angeles on 9/9—the night before his 40th birthday—losing a 4-1 contest to the Dodgers who sent Edwin Jackson to the mound on his 20th birthday...finished the season by going 2-0 with a 1.71 ERA over his final 3 starts...in his first start as a 40-year old on 9/14 vs. Colorado, tossed his fourth career one-hitter in a 5-0 victory...walked one and fanned 12 for his 88th career complete game and 35th shutout of his career...was his first one-hitter since 7/16/98 with Seattle vs. Minnesota and the sixth one-hitter in Arizona's six-year history...had a pair of hits in the win, the second time during the 2003 season that a pitcher had more hits than he surrendered in a game (Mets' RHP Steve Trachsel also had two hits in a one-hitter at Shea Stadium on 8/18 vs. Colorado)...on 9/19 at Milwaukee, recorded the first home run of his career off Doug Davis, his first home run in 437 career at bats...he became the oldest player in Major League history to hit his first home run, eclipsing Bill McGhee of the Philadelphia A's, who went deep on 9/3/44, at the age of 38 years, 364 days...closed the year with a 6-3 victory on 9/24 at Colorado, his eighth straight winning decision against the Rockies.

WINS LAST 10 SEASONS
(1996-2005)

1. Greg Maddux	168
2. RANDY JOHNSON	164
3. Pedro Martinez	162
4. Andy Pettitte	160
5. Roger Clemens	159

2002: Delivered his first career "Triple Crown" of pitching to unanimously win a fourth consecutive Cy Young Award, the second hurler ever to win four in a row (also Greg Maddux, 1992-95), one shy of Roger Clemens' record...was the 11th unanimous selection in history and the first since Maddux in '95 (the same year of Randy's first Cy Young with Seattle)...won a club record and personal best 24 games while posting a 2.32 ERA and 334 strikeouts, the ninth time he's led the Majors in strikeouts...became only the second National League pitcher since 1973 to lead in all three categories, joining the Mets' Doc Gooden in 1985 (was 24-4 with a 1.53 ERA and 268 K's)...earned team Pitcher-of-the-Year honors from the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA, and was also tabbed the top National League lefthander on The Sporting News All-Star team...broke his own club ERA record for a starting pitcher, eclipsing the 2.48 mark he had in 1999, and recorded his lowest single-season ERA since a 2.28 mark in 1997 with Seattle...jumped from ninth to fourth on the all-time strikeout list, passing Walter Johnson, Gaylord Perry, Don Sutton, Tom Seaver and Bert Blyleven...became the first pitcher in Major League history to strikeout at least 300 batters in five straight seasons and tied Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers to record six career 300-strikeout seasons...was joined in the 300-K club by Curt Schilling, becoming the first teammates in Major League history to each record 300 strikeouts in the same season...in 31 of his 35 starting assignments, was 24-2 with a remarkable 1.56 ERA, allowing only 41 earned runs in 237.0 innings...opened the regular season by winning the National League Pitcher-of-the-Month award for April by going 6-0 with a 1.37 ERA, becoming the first pitcher to win six games prior to 5/1 twice in his career (also 2000)...the only other 2 hurlers ever to accomplish the feat once were Vida Blue (1971) and Dave Stewart (1988)...set the tone for the season with a complete game, 2-0 victory in the season opener on 4/1 vs. San Diego, his first of a league leading eight complete games...established a season-high with 17 strikeouts on 4/21 vs. Colorado...later added another 17-strikeout game on 9/14 vs. Milwaukee...was named to his ninth All-Star team, but chose not to attend due a sore back, the result of a collision with San Francisco's David Bell on 7/6...on 7/21 at San Diego, allowed eight earned runs in just 5.0 innings, losing an 11-9 decision...his season ERA rose from 2.61 to 2.99 after that outing, but followed that game by posting an 11-1 record and 1.31 ERA in 12 straight starts to close out the season...in those 12 games, allowed just 15 earned runs in 103.1 innings while recording 142 strikeouts...finished out the season with a 5-0 September, allowing only three earned runs in 41.0 innings for a 0.66 ERA, earning the N.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honor again...posted a 13-1 mark with five no-decisions when taking the ball after an Arizona loss...finished the year with 12 hits, while tying his own club record for RBI by a pitcher eight...had his five-game postseason winning streak snapped with a 12-2 loss in the NLDS opener vs. St. Louis on 10/1.

2001: Was honored with a third consecutive Cy Young Award, posting a 21-6 record with a Major-League leading 2.49 ERA...also led the Majors in strikeouts with 372 over 249.2 innings...added to his list of accolades a World Series Championship and the honor of being named World Series co-MVP, with teammate Curt Schilling...his strikeouts per nine-inning ratio of 13.4 was the best single-season mark in Major League history, eclipsing Pedro Martinez's previous record of 13.2 with the Red Sox in 1999...his 372 strikeouts also established a career best, the third best single-season total in Major League history, just 11 strikeouts behind Nolan Ryan's all-time mark of 383...also had his third consecutive year with 23 double-digit strikeout games, tying a Major League record he already shared with Ryan...his strikeout total combined with Curt Schilling's 293 made them the top single-season tandem in Major League history (665 total), fanning 41 more than Ryan and Bill Singer when they struck out 624 batters with the Angels in 1973...concluded a remarkable year by going 16-2 with a 2.21 ERA in his last 24 appearances, allowing 42 earned runs over 171.0 innings...his 21st and final win on 10/2 vs. Colorado was also the 200th of his career...was 12-1 in his last 13 decisions dating back to 6/29...on 5/8 vs. Cincinnati, struck out 20 batters to join Roger Clemens (twice) and Kerry Wood as the only hurlers to strikeout 20 in a nine-inning span...on 7/19 at San Diego, struck out 16 of the 23 batters he faced in a rare relief appearance to establish a Major League record for strikeouts by a reliever (Walter Johnson had 15 in 11.1 innings in 1913)...after the 7/18 contest was suspended in the third inning due to an electrical box explosion, came in relief of Schilling to work the final 7.0 innings, allowing an eighth inning single for San Diego's only hit in the game...on 8/23 at Pittsburgh, tossed 7.0 innings in a 5-1 loss, his only setback in his last 18 trips to the hill...his first inning strikeout of Jack Wilson was the 1,000th as a Diamondback (in less than three full seasons)...fanned Wilson again in the sixth to become his 300th victim of the 2001 season, the first time in history that a pitcher recorded at least 300 strikeouts in four straight seasons...was the National League All-Star starting pitcher on 7/10 in Seattle, his eighth career trip to the Midsummer Classic and his second straight start...his 372 strikeouts came while walking only 71 hitters, a differential of 301, which is the second best in Major League history...when Sandy Koufax set the N.L. strikeout record with 382 in 1965, he walked only 71 men, a difference of 311...went 5-1 with a 1.52 ERA in the post-season and was named the Co-MVP of the World Series with mound-mate Curt Schilling...the duo combined to go 9-1 with a 1.30 ERA in 12 postseason outings...in lone Division Series appearance, extended his postseason losing streak to seven games (8 starts) with a 4-1 loss in Game Two vs. St. Louis...began a five-game post-season winning streak in Game One of the National League Championship Series vs. Atlanta, tossing a complete game three-hitter with 11 strikeouts in a 1-0 win...allowed a first inning single to Chipper Jones then fired 7.0 straight hitless innings to set a NLCS record...followed with a win in the N.L. pennant clincher in Game Five at Atlanta, allowing two hits in 7.0 innings of a 3-2 victory...recorded 19 strikeouts in his two starts against the Braves to set another NLCS record...World Series experience began with an efficient 4-0 win in Game Two vs. the Yankees, going the distance on a three-hitter with a walk and 11 strikeouts...was the first World Series complete game since Greg Maddux did so vs. Cleveland in Game One of the 1995 Series, and first complete game shutout since Schilling's Game Five triumph (with Philadelphia) over Toronto in 1993...the three-hitter also marked the fewest hits allowed in a World Series complete game shutout since Orel Hershiser three-hit the A's in Game Two of the 1988 World Series at Los Angeles...it also marked the first time the Yankees had been victimized by a complete game shutout in World Series play since the Dodgers' Don Drysdale tossed a three-hitter in Game Three of the 1963 World Series at Los Angeles...followed Game Two with a 1.1-inning relief stint in Game Three, his first post-season bullpen work since going 3.0 frames against the Yankees in Game Five of the 1995 Division Series while with Seattle...was the starter in a 15-2 triumph in Game Six of the World Series...the first inning strikeout of Derek Jeter in Game Six was his 412th overall strikeout of the year (372 regular season/40 post-season) surpassing Koufax for the highest combined single-season total in big league history (Koufax had 382 regular season/29 World Series in 1965)...returned to the hill the next night in relief to record the last four outs of a come-from-behind win in Game Seven...became the first pitcher in 55 years to win as a starter in Game Six and reliever in Game Seven since St. Louis' Harry Brecheen (1946)...became the first five-game winner in post-season history and the 13th pitcher to win three times in the same World Series, first since Detroit's Mickey Lolich (1968)...his performances in Games Six and Seven made him the first hurler to start a World Series game and pitch in relief in the next game since Dave McNally did so for Baltimore in 1971 vs. Pittsburgh, when he started Game Five and pitched in relief in Games Six and Seven.

2000: In another Cy Young Award-winning season, was 19-7 with a 2.64 ERA and led the majors in strikeouts with 347, while topping the National League in winning pct. (.731) and tying for the top spot in complete games (8), shutouts (3) and starts (35)...became the third NL pitcher to win the Cy Young Award consecutively, first lefthander to do so since Sandy Koufax (1965-66)...also earned his second straight team Pitcher-of-the-Year honor from the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA...started the season by winning co-National League Player-of-the-Week honors on 4/10 and was 6-0 with a 0.91 ERA in April to earn league Pitcher-of-the-Month honors...was 11-1 with a 1.40 ERA through 14 starts and 15-2 with a 2.01 mark at the All-Star break, earning the starting nod for the National League All Star Team at Atlanta on 7/11...became the 12th hurler in history to reach 3,000 career strikeouts when he fanned the Marlins' Mike Lowell on 9/10 at Florida...also recorded his 300th strikeout of the year in that game to join Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers in history to achieve that mark in three consecutive seasons.

1999: In his first full year with Arizona, did not disappoint, going 17-9 with a 2.48 ERA...won his second career Cy Young Award, joining Gaylord Perry and Pedro Martinez as the only pitchers to win the honor in each league...led the Major Leagues in strikeouts (364), complete games (12) and innings pitched (271.2)...struck out 15 batters on 4/10 at Atlanta, the first of 23 double-digit strikeout games on the season...the 23 10-plus strikeout games tied Nolan Ryan's Major League record for most in a season, two more than the previous N.L. mark set in 1965 by Sandy Koufax...suffered the loss in four consecutive shutouts from 6/25-7/10 to tie a Major-League record...was the 10th time in Major League history that a starter was shutout in four consecutive games...in those four games, Arizona was no-hit by the Cardinals' Jose Jimenez in the first loss, followed by a one-hitter, two-hitter and three-hitter in succession...during the stretch, he posted a 1.41 ERA, allowing 5 earned runs in 32.0 innings...in 6/30 loss at Cincinnati, struck out 17 batters and started a streak of three games in which he totaled 43 strikeouts, tying Doc Gooden's three-game National League record set in 1984...earned a spot on his sixth career All-Star team, first as a National Leaguer at Boston on 7/13...recorded the first-ever shutout in Safeco Field at Seattle on 7/20 in a 6-0 Diamondbacks' victory...helped lead Arizona to a 51-17 record in their final 68 games to run away with the NL West...despite a 2-3 record, was named National League Pitcher-of-the-Month for July with a 1.13 ERA (6 ER in 48.0 IP) and 64 strikeouts...garnered another N.L. Player-of-the-Week award for the week of 8/16-22...reached the 300-strikeout mark faster than any hurler in history, fanning the Marlins' Kevin Millar on 8/26 in his 29th start, two starts quicker than any other pitcher...earned the NL West Division-clinching win on 9/24 at San Francisco in an 11-3 Diamondbacks' victory...made one postseason appearance vs. the Mets, absorbing an 8-4 loss in Game One of the National League Division Series...left the game with the bases loaded and the score tied at 4-4 in the ninth before Edgardo Alfonzo hit a grand slam off Bobby Chouinard.

1998: Was 9-10 with a 4.33 ERA in 23 starts for the Mariners through 7/31, but spent the second half of the season with the Houston Astros, going 10-1 with a 1.28 ERA in 11 starts...totaled a then career-high 329 strikeouts, accruing 213 in Seattle and 116 with the Astros...was acquired by the Astros on 7/31 for RHP Freddy Garcia and SS Carlos Guillen...when acquired, the Astros had a 3 1/2-game lead in the NL Central...after the deal, Houston played the best overall month in franchise history, going 22-7 in August and increasing the division lead to 11 games...closed the regular season with wins in his final seven starts, posting a 1.16 ERA (7 earned runs in 54.1 innings)...earned National League Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for August, going 5-1 with a 1.17 ERA in six starts and leading the league in shutouts (3) and K's (61)...after a 9/2 win at Atlanta over Greg Maddux, recorded his fourth straight shutout at home, 1-0 vs. Cincinnati on 9/7...posted his eighth win in an Astros uniform on 9/12 vs. St. Louis, a 3-2 triumph that ended his consecutive scoreless inning streak in the Astrodome at 36.0 innings, allowing both runs in the first inning...all told, in five starts at the Astrodome during the regular season, held the opposition scoreless in 42 of the 43 innings he pitched, allowing just two earned runs (0.42 ERA)...wrapped up September by winning his second consecutive NL Pitcher-of-the-Month award, going 5-0 with a 1.41 ERA (6 ER in 38.1 IP)...was 0-2 with a 1.93 ERA in the postseason, surrendering just three earned runs.

1997: Rebounded from injury in 1996 to set a Seattle franchise record with 20 wins, leading the AL in opponents' batting average (.193), winning pct. (.833) and strikeouts per nine-innings (12.3)...finished second to Roger Clemens in the American League Cy Young balloting...had a seven-game winning streak (in eight starts) from 5/13-6/19, including a five-game period in which he allowed only 1 earned run over 40.0 innings (0.23 ERA)...also had a streak of 31.0 straight scoreless innings from 5/28-6/13...streak was halted by an Eric Young home run on 6/13 vs. Colorado...the winning streak was stopped on 6/24 vs. Oakland, despite his 19 strikeouts in a complete game...the 19 strikeouts matched the Major League record and set an American League mark for strikeouts in a game by a left-handed pitcher...also tied the Major League record for strikeouts in a loss...earned AL Pitcher-of-the-Month honors for June by going 4-1 with a 0.92 ERA...made his second career All-Star Game start with 2.0 shutout innings in Cleveland on 7/8...threw a five-hit shutout on 8/8 vs. Chicago, striking out 19 and tying his own AL record for strikeouts by a left-handed pitcher...was the eighth 19-strikeout (nine-inning) game in history and the first time it was done by the same pitcher twice in a season...worked 2.0 innings of relief on 9/27 vs. Oakland to pick up his 20th victory, his first career relief win...in that game, recorded his 2,000th career strikeout (Ben Grieve).

1996: Was 5-0 with a 3.67 ERA, but appeared in only 14 games due to a lower back injury that eventually required season-ending surgery...made his final start of the year on 5/12 vs. Kansas City, then went on the 15-day disabled list the next day with an irritated nerve in his lower back...was transferred to the 60-day disabled list on 6/22...made one rehab appearance for Class-A Everett...was activated from the disabled list on 8/6 and pitched 2.0 scoreless innings of relief that day vs. Cleveland...struck out eight batters in 4.0 innings on 8/13 vs. Kansas City, to record his second career save...was placed back on the DL on 8/27 and on 9/12 underwent a micro-endoscopic discectomy to correct an extruded disc herniation in his lower back...procedure was performed in Los Angeles by Dr. Robert Watkins.

1995: Went 18-2 with a 2.48 ERA to win his first Cy Young Award, garnering 26 of 28 first place votes...was named to The Associated Press and The Sporting News All-Star Teams, and was the AL Pitcher-of-the-Year by The Sporting News...finished sixth in the American League MVP balloting...the first Mariner to ever win the ERA title, also led the league in strikeouts (294) and opponents batting average against (.201), while ranking second in wins...won his fourth consecutive league strikeout crown and established an AL record for best winning percentage in a season (minimum 20 decisions), breaking Ron Guidry's .893 mark (25-3) for the '78 Yankees...the Mariners were 27-3 in his 30 starts...equaled a career-high with a 160-pitch complete game at Cleveland on 7/7, the first time he did not walk a man in a complete game...suffered his second (and final) loss of the year on 8/1 at California...earned AL Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for 9/18-24, going 2-0 with a 0.59 ERA, and striking out 25 in 15.1 innings...was 7-0 with a 1.45 ERA for his final 10 starts, including a three-hit, complete game in the one-game playoff on 10/2 vs. California for the AL West crown...was the winner in Game Three of the American League Division Series vs. the Yankees, allowing two runs over 7.0 innings...came back on one day's rest to work in relief in Game Five, striking out six in 3.0 innings to lead the Mariners to the ALCS...recorded no decision in Game Three of the ALCS vs. Cleveland, allowing one run over 8.0 innings, a game that Seattle won, 5-2 in 11 innings...was the losing pitcher in Game Six, giving up three runs in 7.1 innings...underwent off-season surgery on his right knee performed by Dr. Larry Pedegana.

1994: Finished third in the Cy Young Award balloting of a strike-shortened season, despite going 13-6 with a 3.19 ERA and 1996: Matched his career-high by winning 19 games for the second straight season, going 19-11 with a 4.81 ERA in 36 starts...made four attempts in his effort to become the Orioles first 20-game winner since Mike Boddicker in 1984...18 of his 36 starts on the year resulted in "Quality Starts" (6.0 or more IP, 3 or fewer ER)...on 5/9 vs. Seattle he yielded a career-high 13 hits...on 7/26 he lost a third straight decision for the first time in his career...captured his first career Rawlings Gold Glove award for defensive excellence...in the annual Baseball America "Tools of the Trade" poll, Mike was tabbed as having baseball's "Best Changeup", "Best Control" and was the overall "Best Pitcher"...placed fifth in the BBWAA Cy Young Award balloting with one second place and two third place votes for a total of five points...finished behind Pat Hentgen, Andy Pettitte, Mariano Rivera and Charles Nagy...the 19-game winner received the second best run support per 9.0 IP in the AL at 6.84 (243.1 IP, 185 R), trailing only Boston's Tom Gordon at 7.34.

1995: The Orioles' ace tied Greg Maddux for the ML lead with a career-high 19 victories, going 19-9 with a 3.29 ERA...left-handed hitters batted just .210 (102-for-486) against Mussina, the best average against left-handers in the league...in addition, he averaged 3.16 strikeouts for every walk allowed, the second best K/BB ratio in the league, second only to Seattle's Johnson and his on-base percentage allowed was .270, second lowest to Johnson's .266...on the year, opposing baserunners stole four bases with Mussina on the hill, but were caught stealing six times...the 40% success rate was the third lowest among AL pitchers...through his first 11 starts of the year he was 5-5 with a 5.13 ERA (66.2 IP, 61 H, 38 ER) and 15 HR allowed...over his final 21 starts he was 14-4 with a 2.50 ERA (155 IP, 126 H, 43 ER) and 9 HR allowed...compiled a career-best eight-game winning streak over nine starts, 6/23-8/2...had a string of 24.0 consecutive innings without a walk spanning from 4/26-5/18...with runners in scoring position, held opponents to a .212 average (31-for-146) and with runners in scoring position and two out he limited batters to a .208 average (16-for-77)...put together a string of 26.0 consecutive scoreless innings, 9/21-10/1 as he ended the season with three straight CG victories...it was the second longest consecutive scoreless innings string in the league behind Kenny Rogers' 39.0...named as the right-handed pitcher on The Sporting News AL All-Star Team and the right-hander on the USA Today Baseball Weekly AL "Best of '95"...finished fifth in the AL Cy Young balloting behind Randy Johnson, Jose Mesa, Tim Wakefield and David Cone.

1994: Was 16-5 with a 3.06 ERA in 24 starts...finished in a four-way, second-place tie for most wins in the Majors (16), behind the Yankees' Jimmy Key (17), along with David Cone, Ken Hill and Greg Maddux...he and Ben McDonald combined for 30 wins in the abbreviated season, most by a pair of ML teammates...tied the Orioles record for most wins at the All-Star Break with 13...Jim Palmer, Dave McNally and Mike Cuellar each did it twice...threw five home run balls on 7/1 vs California to join Jim Palmer in the Orioles record books...on the road, Mike was 8-1 with a league best 2.04 ERA...only 7-of-13 baserunners attempting to steal were successful against him...became the first Oriole ever to be chosen for the All-Star Team in each of his first three full seasons.

1993: Went 14-6 with a 4.46 ERA in 25 starts...reached 36 ML wins in 69 games; only two pitchers have reached 36 wins with the Orioles in less time and neither were original Orioles...Mike Cuellar had 36 wins in his first 63 games with the Birds in '69-'70 after coming over to the Orioles from Houston prior to the '69 season...Steve Stone earned 36 wins in 68 games with the Orioles in '79-'80 after coming over to the Orioles from the White Sox prior to the '79 season...was one of only three active pitchers to go eight games over .500 in each of his first two full seasons in the Majors, joining Dwight Gooden and Mike Boddicker...worked five or more innings 48 out of his first 50 ML starts...no pitcher in Orioles history had ever accomplished that feat...missed six weeks during the season with a sore right shoulder and lower back pain...was on the disabled list from 7/22-8/19 with a strained right shoulder...on 5/16 at Detroit tied a club record with 14 strikeouts, a mark that was last accomplished in a regular season game more than 35 years ago (Connie Johnson, 9/2/57 vs. NYY).

1992: Finished fourth in the AL Cy Young voting, going 18-5 with a 2.54 ERA in 32 starts...his .783 winning percentage led the Majors and was fourth best in club history behind Dave McNally (.808, 21-5 in 1971); Jim Palmer (.800, 16-4, in 1969) and Wally Bunker (.792, 19-5 in 1964)...at 23, became the O's youngest 18-game winner since 19-year-old Wally Bunker won 19 games in 1964...the only other Orioles to win that many games at a younger age are Steve Barber and Chuck Estrada, who both won 18 games as 22-year-olds in '61 and '60, respectively...his 2.54 ERA was third best in the AL and the lowest by an Oriole (excluding abbreviated '81 season) since Jim Palmer in '78 (2.46)...the last time an AL pitcher Mike's age or younger posted an ERA that low was in '76 when Mark Fidrych (2.34) and Frank Tanana (2.43) did it at 22 and 23, respectively...led the O's in innings pitched (241.0) and was eighth in the AL...his IP total was the most by an Oriole since Mike Boddicker's 261.0 in '84...allowed two runs or less in 20 of 32 starts and one run or less 14 times...began the season 5-0 and finished the year with a seven-game winning streak over his last nine starts...in his first start after the All-Star Break, 7/17 at Texas, pitched the 29th one-hitter in club history, winning 8-0 with 10 strikeouts over 20-game winner Kevin Brown...Kevin Reimer broke up the no-hit bid with a one-out double in the fifth...at 23 years-8 months, became the youngest Oriole pitcher to make the All-Star Team since Chuck Estrada (22) in '60.

1991: Split the season between Triple-A Rochester and the Orioles...went 4-5 with a 2.88 ERA in 12 starts with the Orioles...joined the Orioles on 7/31 and became the O's most effective starter over the final two months of the season...finished with the lowest ERA (2.87) among the 29 Major-League rookies with 10 or more starts...posted the AL's second best ERA after 9/1 (1.66), behind only Oakland's Mike Moore (1.46)...after 9/1, Mussina allowed two runs or less in all six starts, but was only 2-1...fanned 10 batters in his first ML win, 10-2, vs. Texas on 8/14...lost 1-0 in his ML debut on 8/4 at Chicago (7.2 IP, 4 H, 1 ER, 4 BB, 1 K) on a homer by Frank Thomas...when promoted from Triple-A Rochester on 7/31, was tied for the International League lead in wins (10), second in ERA (2.87) and strikeouts (107)...was the winner of the first Palmer Prize as the top pitcher in the O's minor-league system.

1990: Signed with the Orioles on 7/2 after he was taken in the first round in the draft...made his official debut 7/19 for Double-A Hagerstown vs. Canton-Akron...worked 4.0 scoreless innings pitching against Cleveland's John Farrell, who was on a rehab assignment...in 11 pro starts that season, including two in the post-season for Rochester, he allowed more than 2 ER only once...walked only eight batters in his last 63.1 innings, none in 14.2 post-season innings for Rochester...earned his first pro win on 7/31, when he beat New Britain, 7-0, with seven shutout innings, while pitching for Hagerstown...in his last five regular season starts (three at Double-A and two at Triple-A), he allowed only 3 ER in 36.2 innings.

PERSONAL: Was signed by Orioles scout Ed Sprague...earned a degree in economics from Stanford University in December '90...finished in only 3 1/2 years...signed a national letter of intent to attend Stanford, but O's picked him in the 11th round of the June '87 draft anyway...he did not sign...purchases game tickets for local youth charity organizations; he calls his group the "Mooseketeers"...since 1997, he has worked with the College Bound Foundation and Lycoming County (PA) Chapter for the American Red Cross...in '98, Mike read a PSA for Junior achievement...was the Orioles/Baltimore Sun Summer Reading spokesperson and supported the Baltimore County "Reading Makes Cents" program...over the last three seasons with the Yankees, has purchased over $5,000 worth of Modell's sporting equipment to be donated to New York and Pennsylvania area youth organizations.

HITTING STREAK: 13 games, from 4/28-5/21/98.

2004: Made his 10th Opening Day roster with Kansas City but suffered a season-ending right elbow injury in June...played in only 20 games for the Royals and hit .305 (18-for-59) with 3HR and 7RBI...began the year by hitting safely in nine straight games from 4/10-5/16, batting .357 (10-for-28) during the streak...had a season-high three hits on 6/2 at Detroit...was placed on the 15-day D.L. on 6/22 with nerve irritation in his right elbow...was transferred to the 60-day D.L. on 6/24 following "Tommy John" ligament replacement surgery and missed the remainder of the season.

2003: Began the season with Cincinnati where he played 60 games before a late-August deal sent him to the Phillies...with Cincinnati, hit .229 (41-for-179) with 3HR and 19RBI...homered in his season debut on 4/11 vs. Philadelphia...hit his second career grand slam on 6/11 at Tampa Bay, taking Dewon Brazelton deep...delivered a walk-off RBI single to lead Cincinnati past Philly on 7/28...was traded to the Phillies on 8/31 for a player to be named later (OF Eric Valent)...with Philadelphia, went 3-for-7 (.429) in seven games to conclude the season...was 3-for-5 in six pinch-hitting assignments.

2002: Played in only 23 games with Cincinnati, batting .226 (21-for-93) with 3HR and 13RBI...missed nearly half of the season while recovering from arthroscopic surgery on his right elbow, performed the previous September...he appeared just once—on 4/5 vs. Montreal—before being placed on the disabled list from 4/11-7/14 with right elbow tendinitis...was sent to Triple-A Louisville on 5/24 for a rehabilitation assignment...during that rehab assignment, he suffered a strained right groin on 6/10...returned to Louisville for another rehab assignment on 6/26...was reinstated from the disabled list on 7/15, but didn't play until 7/19 vs. Mets, when he recorded his first two hits of the season...he smacked his first career grand slam and established a career-high with 5RBI on 9/19 at Pittsburgh, taking the Pirates' Mike Williams deep with two out in the ninth and leading the Reds to a 5-4 victory.

2001: In his first season with Cincinnati, hit .257 (48-for-187) with 9HR and 25RBI in 63 games...was bothered most of the year by a sore right elbow, an injury that eventually required surgery...with 12 errors, tied for the Major League lead among catchers...went 3-for-5 with 1 double, 2 HR and 3 RBI vs. the Cubs on 6/30, his fourth career two-homer game...missed 10 games with inflammation in his right elbow, taking him out of action from 7/22-8/2...made his last start on 9/2 vs. Houston, when he left the game with a strained right elbow...was placed on the 60-day D.L. on 9/4 and had season-ending surgeries on his right elbow and right knee on 9/7...both procedures were performed by Dr. Timothy Kremchek.

2000: Hit .217 (52-for-240) with 8HR and 33RBI in 76 games, including 68 starts behind the plate with Arizona...hit seven home runs in his first 13 starts, including a pair of two-homer games (4/15 at San Francisco and 4/25 at Philadelphia)...on 4/25 at Philadelphia, his home run off Chris Brock was the 75th homer to land in the Vet's upper deck...three times had 4RBI in a game...threw out 18-of-67 base-runners attempting to steal (27%).

1999: In 88 games with Arizona, hit .232 (66-for-284) and establishing career-highs with 14HR and 38RBI...on 4/9 at Atlanta, collided with the Braves' Ryan Klesko on a play at the plate and suffered a bruised quadriceps muscle that forced him to miss 10 starts...was able to pinch-hit during that time and on 4/13 vs. Los Angeles hit his only career pinch-hit home run, a two-run shot in the 16th inning off Dave Mlicki that tied the game and led to a 7-6 Diamondbacks victory...on 7/19 at Seattle became the first player to hit two homers in a game at Safeco Field...from 5/18-21, homered in three consecutive games to tie the club record...finished the season with a six-game hitting streak, including a homer in the division-clinching win at San Francisco...behind the plate, threw out 26% of the potential base thieves during the year (21-for-80)...caught every inning in the Division Series vs. the Mets, going 2-for-14 (.143).

1998: In his first season with Arizona, hit .259 (71-for-274) with 11HR and 34RBI in 92 games...began as the backup catcher, but an injury to Jorge Fabregas signaled more playing time...from 4/28-5/21 hit in a career- and franchise record 13 straight games, batting .413 (19-for-46) with 3 HR and 7 RBI...homered in back-to-back games on 5/11-12...threw out 30% of the potential base thieves (19-for-63).

1997: Spent most of the season at Triple-A Tucson, batting .321 (67-for-209) with 10HR and 43RBI in 64 games...in a pair of stints with Milwaukee hit .250 (9-for-36) in 30 games...was placed on 15-day disabled list from 7/26-9/2 with an strained left rib cage.

1996: Was acquired by the Brewers from the Mets on 1/17 in exchange for RHP Cory Lidle...opened the year with Milwaukee but was optioned to Triple-A New Orleans on 4/5...spent the majority of the season with New Orleans, where he was an American Association All-Star hitting .287 with 27HR and 70RBI in 95 games...was hit by a pitch 13 times to lead the league, and his 27 HR ranked fourth...appeared in 14 games with the Brewers, going 2-for-14...was recalled by Milwaukee on 6/20 for four days without appearing in a game before being returned to the minors...was recalled again on 8/11 and remained with the Brewers for the remainder of the season...started American League career 0-for-16 before getting first hit on 8/30 off of the Twins' Rich Robertson.

1995: Started 59 games behind the plate for the Mets, hitting .219 (43-for-196) with 4HR and 18RBI...homered in successive starts on 5/17 at Houston and 5/21 at Philadelphia.

1994: In his first Major-League season hit .253 (38-for-150) with 2HR and 14RBI in 47 games with the New York Mets...spent the entire season with the Mets after being selected from Cleveland in the Rule 5 draft the previous December...made his Major League debut on 4/5 at Chicago, collecting his first Major League hit with a 2-run double off of Shawn Boskie in the third inning...hit first big league homer on 5/5 in Busch Stadium off of the Cards' Allen Watson.

1993: In his first season at the Triple-A level, hit .274 (79-for-288) with 6HR and 33RBI in 98 games with Charlotte.

1992: With Double-A Canton/Akron, hit .284 (84-for-296) with 6HR and 32RBI...earned Eastern League "Player-of-the-Week" honors from 4/19-25.

1991: Hit .263 (101-for-384) with a team-leading 14HR and 74RBI with Single-A Columbus.

1990: In his first professional season, hit .240 (46-for-192) with 2HR and 21RBI in 60 games for Single-A Watertown.

PERSONAL: Graduated from Lawton, OK, High School in 1988, where he was All-State in baseball and football...quarterbacked his senior squad to the Class 5A state championship...attended Seminole, OK, Junior College, where as a freshman he was All-Conference and All-Region after leading all junior college players with 30 home runs and 124 RBI...as a sophomore was National Junior College Player-of-the-Year and a first-team All-American, batting .399 with 22 HR and 97 RBI and led his club to a third-place finish in the Junior College World Series.

DID YOU KNOW...

The Yankees have recorded 95 or more wins in each of the last five seasons (2001-2005), the third time in franchise history that the Yankees have won 95 games or more games in at least five straight years (also had at least 95 wins in nine straight seasons from 1949-1957; and in five straight from 1960-1964)...only four other teams in Major-League history have ever compiled at least five straight seasons of 95 or more wins: the 1906-1910 Chicago Cubs (five straight); 1941-1946 St. Louis Cardinals (six straight); 1972-1976 Cincinnati Reds (five straight); and 1996-2000 Atlanta Braves (five straight)...only the Yankees—with three—have ever compiled more than one such streak.

HISTORY & RECORDS

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK YANKEES

What would become the most successful team in sports history actually began as the Baltimore Orioles in 1901. When that franchise folded after only two seasons, it was purchased for $18,000 by two colorful New Yorkers, Frank Farrell and Bill Devery.

New York's third Major-League team, joining the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers of the National League, would play its home games in a hastily constructed, all-wood park at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site was one of the highest spots in Manhattan, the team was named the "High-landers" and their home field "Hilltop Park." They played their inaugural game on April 22, 1903, losing 3-1 to the Senators at Washing-ton. New York recorded the first win in franchise history the next day, a 7-2 decision at Washington.

1903 Highlanders

The Highlanders nearly captured the American-League pennant in 1904—only their second season—as they finished only 1.5 games behind the Boston Pilgrims in the first of three second-place finishes from 1904 to 1910.

After a spectacular fire severely damaged the Polo Grounds in 1911, the Highlanders' owners invited the Giants to share Hilltop Park. Two years later the Giants returned the favor and allowed the Highlanders to move into their rebuilt and vastly superior park. With the move, the Highlanders officially changed their nickname to "Yankees" (by which they had actually been known for most of their history). Two years after the move—on January 11, 1915—Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Colonel Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston purchased the franchise from its by-now disgruntled owners.

From 1911 to 1919, the Yankees won as many as 80 games in a season only twice, but the franchise's fortunes would change forever on January 3, 1920. On what is perhaps the most significant date in club history, the Yankees purchased the contract of George Herman "Babe" Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $125,000 and a $350,000 loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

Ruth's impact was immediate. The Yankees won 95 games in 1920, their highest victory total to date, and captured their first American-League pennant a year later. Their attendance at the Polo Grounds doubled to 1,289,422 in 1920 and, in 1921, the Giants notified their tenant to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. Now bitter rivals, the two teams squared off in the World Series in 1921 and 1922 with the Giants winning both times.

With their departure from the Polo Grounds inevitable, the Yankee owners set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own. Baseball's first triple-decked structure with an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first baseball facility to be labeled a "stadium."

Construction began on May 5, 1922 and, in only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox. An announced crowd of 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium for a glimpse of Baseball's grandest facility while thousands milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Appropriately, Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees coasted to a 4-1 win.

Because it was widely recognized that Ruth's tremendous drawing power made the new stadium possible, it would immediately become known as "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 37 World Series and Yankees won their first World Championship over their former landlord, the Giants. Of course, as the Stadium became the stage for a staggering number of World titles—now totaling 26—it would also become known as "The Home of Champions."

On June 1, 1925 in a 5-3 loss vs. Washington, Manager Miller Huggins inserted a 21-year-old rookie first baseman as a pinch hitter for light-hitting shortstop Pee Wee Wanninger. No one could have imagined at the time that this appearance would be the first of 2,130 consecutive games played by Lou Gehrig, who, with Babe Ruth and later Joe DiMaggio, anchored some of the greatest ball clubs of all time.

Babe Ruth

After a disheartening loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1926 World Series, the Yankees rolled to World Champion-ships in both 1927 and 1928, sweeping the Series both years. The 1927 club, the first Yankee team to be labeled "Murderers' Row," became the yardstick by which athletic greatness is measured. During that season, Ruth shattered his own single-season home run record with his 60th on September 30,1927.

In his 15 seasons in pinstripes, Ruth helped build a tradition of winning with seven American-League pennants and four World Championships. He finished his unparalleled career (with the Boston Braves in 1935) with 714 home runs, 12 American-League home-run titles and six RBI crowns, including five seasons with more than 150. A charter member of Baseball's Hall of Fame, he remains widely regarded as the greatest player of all-time.

After the 1934 season, Ruth's last in New York, the Yankees purchased the contract of a budding star named Joseph Paul DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League. Two years later, DiMaggio made his debut in pinstripes and helped the Yankees to an incredible string of four consecutive World Championships under Manager Joe McCarthy from 1936 through 1939. The decade of the thirties also produced one of the game's greatest lefty-righty pitching combinations in future Hall of Famers Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing. A four-time 20-game winner—including 24-7 in 1932 and 26-5 in 1934—Gomez was also 6-0 in five World Series. Ruffing posted seasons of 20, 20, 21 and 21 wins on four World-Championship clubs from 1936-39.

Lou Gehrig delivers his moving farewell address on July 4, 1939.

Sadly, in 1939, Gehrig was diagnosed with a crippling disease and his streak of 2,130 games came to an end on May 2 when he did not appear in a 22-2 Yankees' win at Detroit. On July 4, the Yankees honored their captain with an emotional "Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day" at Yankee Stadium and his uniform number (4) became the first in Baseball to be retired. He died on June 2, 1941.

With the departure of Gehrig, DiMaggio became the pillar of the next generation of Yankee champions. In his 13 seasons in pinstripes, the Yankees played in the World Series in all but two years and won 10 World-Series titles. The legendary "Yankee Clipper" compiled one of the game's most remarkable—and perhaps unbreakable—records in 1941 when he hit safely in a record 56 consecutive games.

Joe DiMaggio

The Yankees also made a seamless transition after DiMaggio's retirement at the age of 37 after the 1951 season. With Whitey Ford and Mickey Mantle joining future Hall of Famers Yogi Berra and Phil Rizzuto, the Yankees won eight American-League pennants and six World Championships under Manager Casey Stengel during the 1950's. Their streak of five consecutive World-Series titles from 1949 through 1953 remains a Major-League record with no other team winning as many as four straight.

Mantle would achieve greatness despite an arrested case of osteo-myelitis and numerous injuries. The powerful switch-hitter belted 536 home runs, collected 2,415 hits and batted .300 or more 10 times in an 18-year career. In his first 14 seasons in pinstripes, the Yankees missed the World Series only twice (in 1954 and 1959).

Ford's lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the best winning percentage (.690) of any 20th century pitcher and he paced the American League in victories three times and in ERA and shutouts twice. He still holds many World Series records, including 10 wins, 33 consecutive scoreless innings and 94 strikeouts.

Mickey Mantle

The heart of the Yankees for 18 seasons, Berra played on an incredible 14 pennant winners and 10 World Champions. He was a three-time MVP and was selected to the All-Star team in every season from 1948 through 1962.

Rizzuto was recognized as the glue of 10 pennant winners and eight World-Series Champions from 1941-56 and captured the league's MVP award in 1950, batting .324 with 200 hits and 125 runs scored.

And not every contributor to Yankee and Baseball history was a future Hall of Famer. In Game Five of the 1956 World Series vs. the Brooklyn Dodgers on October 8th at Yankee Stadium, right-hander Don Larsen authored what is perhaps the game's greatest pitching performance when he retired all 27 Dodger batters for the only perfect game in World-Series history.

Don Larsen and Yogi Berra celebrate the only World-Series perfect game.

The Yankees opened the decade of the sixties in their usual fashion, winning pennants in the first five seasons (1960-'64) and World-Series titles in 1961 and 1962. Incredibly, in the 29 seasons from 1936 to 1964, the Yankees won a remarkable 22 pennants and 16 World Championships. The 1961 club is still regarded as one of the best teams in Baseball history. With Mantle and Roger Maris embroiled in a season-long race to break Ruth's single-season home-run record, the Yankees rolled to 109 wins en route to the World Championship. Maris smashed Ruth's record when he belted his 61st home run on October 1 at Yankee Stadium in the last game of the season.

Roger Maris hits number 61.

But age finally caught up with the ball club after a seven-game Series loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1964. The Yankees would finish first in the division only once in the next nine seasons and actually plummeted to last place in 1966 for the first time in 53 years.

The team's fall from grace ended on January 2, 1973, when the most storied franchise in sports history was sold by CBS to a group headed by George M. Steinbrenner III. With the addition of Catfish Hunter—Baseball's first marquee free agent—shrewd trades which brought Ed Figueroa, Mickey Rivers, Chris Chambliss and Willie Randolph and a strong nucleus which included Thurman Munson, Graig Nettles, Roy White and Sparky Lyle, the Yankees would make their first post-season appearance in 12 years in 1976 by winning their first American-League-East title. Then on October 14, 1976, in the deciding fifth game of the League Championship Series vs. the Kansas City Royals, Chambliss launched a ninth-inning, pennant-winning home run to put the Yankees back in the World Series.

Chris Chambliss hits the pennant winner in the 1976 ALCS.

After a disheartening four-game sweep vs. the Cincinnati Reds in the 1976 World Series, the Yankees introduced Reggie Jackson—the most prolific slugger of his era—as the club's newest free-agent acquisition. Jackson then capped an exciting 1977 season with one of Baseball's greatest individual performances. In Game Six of the World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium on October 18, "Mr. October" belted three home runs on three swings of the bat.

In 1978, the Yankees overcame a 14.0-game deficit in the American League East to force a one-game playoff with the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park to decide the American-League pennant. Shortstop Bucky Dent erased a 2-0 Red Sox' lead in the seventh inning with a dramatic three-run homer and the Yankees went on to a 5-4 win en route to a second straight World Championship.

The '78 season also saw the emergence of Ron Guidry as one the franchise's greatest pitchers. A four-time American-League All-Star, Guidry compiled one of the most dominating seasons in baseball history in 1978 and became known as "Louisiana Lightning." He went 25-3 with a 1.74 earned run average in leading the Yankees to their dramatic comeback, compiling a club-record 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts en route to a unanimous selection as the A.L.'s Cy-Young-Award recipient. On June 17, 1978 vs. the California Angels at Yankee Stadium, Guidry shattered the club record for strikeouts with 18. The Yankees' co-captain—with Willie Randolph—from 1986 through 1988, Guidry also won 20 games in 1983 (21-9) and 1985 (22-6).

The seventies ended with tragedy as Thurman Munson, the Yankees' first captain since Gehrig, was killed in the crash of his private jet on August 2, 1979. Only 32 at the time of his death, Munson was the undisputed leader of the clubs that won three consecutive pennants and two World Championships. After their Captain's death, the Yankees would make only one more World-Series appearance (1981) in 17 years despite compiling the best record in the Major Leagues during the decade of the eighties.

Thurman Munson

The eighties also saw the development of one of the franchise's greatest and most popular players, Don Mattingly. "Donnie Baseball," the team captain from 1991 through 1995, batted .307 in his Yankee career (1982-95) and compiled an incredible six-year stretch from 1984-89. During those years, he batted .327 and topped 100 RBI five times, including a career-high 145 in 1985 when he captured the A.L. MVP award. A year earlier, he outdueled teammate Dave Winfield on the final day of the season for the league's batting crown (.343 to .340).

Winfield, who came to the Yankees as the game's most-sought-after free agent in 1981, compiled Hall-of-Fame credentials in his eight-plus seasons in pinstripes (1981-90). He belted 205 home runs for the Yankees with 818 RBI and won five gold gloves.

Don Mattingly

After an absence of 13 years, the Yankees returned to post-season play in 1995 as the American League's first-ever "Wild-Card" entry. A devastating five-game loss to the Seattle Mariners in the Division Series was only the start of an incredible run of eight consecutive post-season appearances, a record shared only by the Atlanta Braves.

In 1996, under new skipper Joe Torre, the Yankees returned to the World Series and would win four of the next five World Championships, including three straight from 1998 through 2000. Their 114 victories in 1998 shattered the 44-year-old American League mark of 111 wins by the 1954 Cleveland Indians (was broken by Seattle in 2001) and their 125 total victories (with 11 post-season wins) remains Baseball's best single-season total.

Ron Guidry

The Yankees' most-recent era of greatness featured a consistent lineup of great home-grown and acquired players to rival any period in franchise history. Since the arrival of Bernie Williams in 1991, the Yankees' farm system has produced All-Stars Derek Jeter, Andy Pettitte, Jorge Posada, Mariano Rivera and Alfonso Soriano. In addition, shrewd trades and free-agent acquisitions have brought such All-Stars as Wade Boggs, Scott Brosius, Roger Clemens, David Cone, Jason Giambi, Tino Martinez, Hideki Matsui, Mike Mussina, Paul O'Neill, Alex Rodriguez, Gary Sheffield and David Wells.

In 2001, the Yankees failed to become only the second team in history to win four consecutive World-Series titles, but captured the hearts of the nation in the aftermath of the September 11th attacks. The Yankees dropped the first two games of the Series vs. the Arizona Diamondbacks at Bank One Ballpark, but rallied to win the next three at Yankee Stadium behind dramatic ninth-inning comebacks in both Games Four and Five. On consecutive nights, Tino Martinez and Scott Brosius erased two-run, ninth-inning Diamondback leads with the Yankees winning both games in extra innings. It marked the first time in World-Series history that a team won two games in the same series when trailing by at least two runs in the ninth inning.

Mariano Rivera celebrates the Yankees' four-game sweep in the 1998 World Series.

Entering their 104th season in 2006, the Yankees seek to extend their American League record of consecutive post-season appearances to 12 (a record exceeded only by the Atlanta Braves' current streak of 14 straight). They will do so by expanding upon the kind of innovation that set their first century—and its 26 World Championships—in motion. More than 100 years ago, the original 1903 team was built with stars from no fewer than eight different Major League teams. The 2006 Yankees will be comprised of stars from no fewer than six nations. ■

ALL-TIME NEW YORK YANKEES ROSTER

In the Yankees' 102 seasons in the American League, 1,377 players have appeared in at least one game (773 are living).

YANKEE PITCHERS AS BATTERS: From 1973 to 1996, only five Yankee pitchers came to bat in regular-season play: Lindy McDaniel was 0-2 in 1973, Sparky Lyle was 0-1 in 1974, Catfish Hunter was 0-1 in 1976, Ron Davis was 0-2 in 1979-80 and Rick Rhoden was 0-1 in 1988...Rhoden, the last Yankee pitcher to bat before interleague play began in 1997, started as the designated hitter on 6/11/88 vs. Baltimore and batted seventh in the lineup...he hit a sacrifice fly to right field in the third inning off Jeff Ballard, scoring Jay Buhner...Rhoden's appearance was the first instance since the inception of the DH that a pitcher started and played a game as the DH...other "lasts" by Yankee pitchers at the plate:
LAST MULTI-HIT GAME: Mike Mussina, 6/23/02 at San Diego (2-for-3, 1R)
LAST HOME RUN: Lindy McDaniel, 9/28/72, at Detroit (off Mickey Lolich)

* Lefthanded pitcher + Perfect Game

On July 18, 1999, David Cone tossed only the 13th perfect game in modern (since 1900) Major-League history. It came only one season after David Wells accomplished the feat and gave the Yankees a record three perfect games in their history, including Don Larsen in the 1956 World Series. Prior to Wells' and Cone's, perfect games had only been pitched in consecutive seasons once (by Jim Bunning of the Phillies in 1964 and the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax in 1965) and never by pitchers from the same team. Yankee Stadium also became the only park to host as many as three perfect games (Dodger Stadium was the site of perfect games by Koufax in 1965 and Montreal's Dennis Martinez in 1991).

ONE-HIT GAMES

The most-recent one-hitter by a Yankees pitcher was thrown by Ted Lilly on 4/27/02 at Seattle (Lilly became the first Yankee pitcher ever to lose a one-hitter in the regular season)...the Yankees' last complete-game one-hit win was by Mike Mussina on 9/2/01 vs. the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park in a 1-0 Yankees' victory...Mussina retired 26 consecutive batters before Carl Everett singled with two outs in the ninth...it was the first complete-game one-hitter by a Yankee since Jimmy Key on 4/27/93 at California in a 5-0 Yankee win...the Yankees last authored a combined one-hitter on 9/26/97 at Detroit, when four pitchers–Andy Pettitte, Brian Boehringer, Mariano Rivera and Jeff Nelson–limited the Tigers to a third-inning single by Travis Fryman.

Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled three CG one-hitters for New York and both men participated in a fourth...Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens each threw two, with one of Bevens' coming in Game Four of the 1947 World Series vs. Brooklyn...Bevens was one out from a no-hitter when the pinch-hitter Cookie Lavagetto doubled in two runs to give the Dodgers a 3-2 victory...it was the last game Bevens and Lavagetto ever played in the Majors.

The Yankees were last held to one hit on 7/16/04 at Detroit (by RHP Mike Maroth)...Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton and Nolan Ryan are the only three men with a pair of one-hitters against the Yankees with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913...Hoyt Wilhelm, who no-hit the Yankees in 1958, also tossed a one-hitter against them in 1959.

Horace Clarke and Don Mattingly are the only Yankees to twice serve as no-hit spoilers...Clarke had the only hit in no-hit bids by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro...in a single month in 1970, Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning, two of which wound up being more than one-hitters...on 5/2/84 at Chicago, Mattingly ruined a perfect game for LaMarr Hoyt with a wind-blown single in the seventh inning, and on 6/29/85 vs. Milwaukee, he also broke up a no-hit bid by Moose Haas, again with a seventh-inning single...on 9/12/81 at Yankee Stadium, Boston LHP Bob Ojeda took a no-hitter into the ninth inning only to have Rick Cerone lead off with a double, followed by a Dave Winfield double.

LONGEST GAMES IN YANKEES HISTORY, BY INNINGS

16 - last on 8/9/02, a 3-2 loss vs. Oakland
17 - last on 6/1/03, a 10-9 win at Detroit

20 - 8/29/67 (G2), a 4-3 win vs.Boston

22 - 6/24/62, a 9-7 win at Detroit

YANKEES GRAND SLAMS

The Yankees hit seven grand slams in 2005...they hit nine grand slams for the second straight season in 2004, equaling the second-highest single-season total in franchise history (also hit nine in 1998)...the Yankees hit a franchise-record 10 grand slams in 1987, tying the major-league mark (since exceeded by eight times by seven teams)...Don Mattingly hit a Major-League record six of the 10 grand slams in 1987...on 5/17/02 vs. the Minnesota Twins, Jason Giambi became only the 21st player in Major-League history—and the second Yankee—to hit a last-inning grand slam to take a team to sudden victory when trailing by three runs (Babe Ruth did it on 9/25/25, hitting a one-out grand slam off Chicago's Sarge Connally in the 10th inning of New York's 6-5 win)...on 9/14/99 at Toronto, Bernie Williams and Paul O'Neill hit grand slams in the seventh and eighth innings respectively, the only time in franchise history that players have hit grand slams in consecutive innings...it was also only the third time in franchise history that the Yankees had two grand slams in the same game (also Tony Lazzeri on 5/24/36 at Philadelphia; and Dave Winfield and Don Mattingly on 6/29/87 at Toronto)...in 1998, Shane Spencer led the club with three grand slams (most ever by a Yankee rookie)...he also became the first Yankee rookie to hit at least two slams in one season since Yogi Berra in 1947...Yankee pitchers allowed three grand slams in 2005...they did not allow a grand slam in 2004 for the first time since the strike-shortened 1981 season (last allowed no grand slams in a full season in 1976)...gave up nine grand slams in 2000, the most in franchise history (surpassing eight in 1995)...four pitchers have hit grand slams for the Yankees - Red Ruffing (1933), Spud Chandler (1940), Don Larsen (1956) and Mel Stottlemyre (1965)...there have been 21 pinch-hit grand slams in Yankee history (by 17 players), the last by Jorge Posada on 6/6/01 vs. Baltimore.

YANKEES IN THE BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

According to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, the New York Yankees have better representation than any other club, with 24 members (the New York Giants have placed the most players in the Hall with 21)....for the purpose of their comparison, games played was the determining factor for position players who suited up for more than one club....for pitchers, games won was the yardstick used....based on the Hall of Fame's criteria, therefore, Reggie Jackson, "Catfish" Hunter and, most recently, Wade Boggs are not counted among the Yankees' 24 representatives as Jackson played more games for Oakland, Hunter won more games with the A's and Boggs played more games with Boston....each player, however, played five distinguished seasons for the Yankees....the former Yankee players, managers and executives in the Hall of Fame are (year of election in parenthesis):

Ed Barrow (1953)
Yogi Berra (1972)
Wade Boggs (2005)
Jack Chesbro (1946)
Earle Combs (1970)
Bill Dickey (1954)
Joe DiMaggio (1955)
Whitey Ford (1972)
Lou Gehrig (1939)
Lefty Gomez (1972)
Waite Hoyt (1969)
Miller Huggins (1964)
Jim "Catfish" Hunter (1987)
Reggie Jackson (1993)
Willie Keeler (1939)
Tony Lazzeri (1991)
Larry MacPhail (1978)
Lee MacPhail (1998)
Mickey Mantle (1974)
Joe McCarthy (1957)
Herb Pennock (1948)
Phil Rizzuto (1994)
Red Ruffing (1967)
Babe Ruth (1936)
Casey Stengel (1966)
George Weiss (1970)
Dave Winfield (2001)

Other members of the Baseball Hall of Fame who also played for or managed for the Yankees are: Frank "Home Run" Baker" (1955), Frank Chance (1946), Stan Coveleski (1969), Clark Griffith (1945), Burleigh Grimes (1964), Bucky Harris (1975), Bill McKechnie (1962), Johnny Mize (1981), Phil Niekro (1996), Gaylord Perry (1991), Branch Rickey (1967), Joe Sewell (1977), Enos Slaughter (1985), Dazzy Vance (1955) and Paul Waner (1952).

a - Eastern Division Series, Yankees finished first in first half of season (prior to player strike) and finished sixth in second half of season.
* American League Champions.

Beginning with Lou Gehrig's number 4 in 1939, the Yankees have retired 15 uniform numbers to honor 16 players and managers.

BILLY MARTIN

Born: May 16, 1928 in Berkeley, CA
Died: December 25, 1989 in Binghamton, NY
Height: 5-11, Weight: 165
Threw and batted righthanded
Number retired in 1986

Had as much "Yankee Pride" as any player or manager to wear pinstripes and he implanted his own fierce desire to win in his teams. Played an integral part in four World Series in the 50's as a player, and added another ring managing the Yankees in 1977. His .333 lifetime series batting average is fourth with at least 75 AB on the all-time series list. Combative and daring, Martin was a brilliant baseball strategist and a legend in Yankee history.

Born: February 6, 1895 in Baltimore, MD
Died: August 16, 1948 in New York, NY
Height: 6-2, Weight: 215
Threw and batted lefthanded
Number retired in 1948

Baseball's greatest slugger and the most colorful figure in the game's history. Debuted as a pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, winning 89 games over six seasons before being converted to the outfield because of his tremendous power. Was sold to the Yankees for $120,000 in 1920 and his 54 home runs that year were more than any other American-League team. Enroute to 714 career home runs, won 12 home run titles, hitting 60 in 1927. Added 15 home runs in World Series competition as he led the Yankees to seven Series appearances and four World titles. A member of the inaugural class of Hall of Fame inductees in 1936.

Born: June 19, 1903 in New York, NY
Died: June 2, 1941 in Riverdale, NY
Height: 6-1, Weight: 212
Threw and batted lefthanded
Number retired in 1939

Durable, powerhitting first baseman who played in an amazing 2,130 consecutive games between 1925 and 1939. Drove in at least 100 runs for 13 straight seasons (1926-38) and established an American-League record with 184 RBI in 1931. Compiled a .340 lifetime batting average and belted 493 home runs in a career shortened by terminal illness. Was honored at Yankee Stadium on July 4, 1939 and made memorable "Today, I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech. Life was immortalized in classic 1942 motion picture, The Pride of the Yankees, starring Gary Cooper. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1939.

Born: November 25, 1914 in Martinez, CA
Died: March 8, 1999 in Hollywood, FL
Height: 6-2, Weight: 193
Threw and batted righthanded
Number retired in 1952

The "Yankee Clipper" is considered by many experts as the best all-around baseball player in history. Was a sensational hitter for average and power, a splendid, graceful, ball-hawking center fielder with a powerfully accurate arm and a daring and alert baserunner. Compiled a .325 lifetime batting average from 1936 to 1951. The two-time batting champion and three-time MVP powered the Yankees to the first of four consecutive World Championships in his 1936 rookie season. Many rate his 56-consecutive-game batting streak in 1941 as the top baseball feat of all time. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1955.

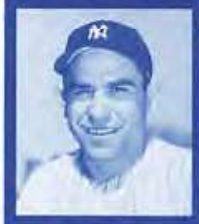
Born: October 20, 1931 in Spavinaw, OK
Died: August 14, 1995 in Dallas, TX
Height: 6-0, Weight: 201
Threw right and switch hit
Number retired in 1969

"The Mick" was the most feared hitter on the most successful team in history. In his best seasons, and there were many, Mantle was simply a devastating player. He could run like the wind and hit tape measure homers, like his famous 565-footer in Washington in 1953. He led the Yanks to 12 fall classics in 14 years, and seven World Championships. He still owns records for most homers, RBI, runs, walks, and strikeouts in World Series play. In 1956, Mantle had one of the greatest seasons ever at the plate. He hit 52 homers with 130 RBI and a .353 average to win the Triple Crown. Mantle was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

YOGI BERRA



Born: May 12, 1925 in St. Louis, MO
Height 5-8, Weight: 191
Threw righthanded and batted lefthanded
Number retired in 1972

A mainstay for the most dominating teams in history, the Yankee that played from the end of World War II until the early 1960's. Although he never led the league in a single major offensive category, he was just the third man to win three Most Valuable Player awards. Selected to play in 15 successive All-Star games. Played on 14 pennant winners and 10 World Champions, more than anyone in history. Led Yankees to the 1964 pennant as manager. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1972.

BILL DICKEY

Born: June 6, 1907 in Bastrop, LA
Died: November 12, 1993
Height: 6-1, Weight: 185
Threw righthanded and batted lefthanded
Number retired in 1972

Regarded as one of the greatest catchers of all-time. A durable and tireless worker, he caught more than 100 games in 13 consecutive seasons (1929-41), an American-League record. He did not allow a single passed ball in 125 games behind the plate, another AL record. Dickey also excelled at the plate, batting over .300 in 10 of his first 11 seasons while hitting 202 homers during his career. He handled Yankee pitching staffs on eight World Series teams, winning seven championships.

ROGER MARIS

Born: September 10, 1934 in Hibbing, MN
Died: December 14, 1985 in Houston, TX
Height: 6-0, Weight: 197
Batted lefthanded and threw righthanded
Number retired in 1984

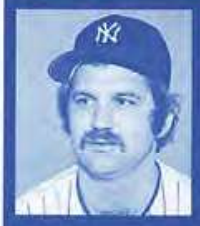
In one of the most dramatic assaults on a baseball record, Maris caught, then surpassed Babe Ruth's famous home run record of 60. Maris hit 61 home runs in 1961, a Major-League record which stood until 1998 and is still the American-League mark. The two-time American League MVP (1960-'61) is also considered as one of the best fielding right fielders in Yankee history.

PHIL RIZZUTO

Born: September 25, 1917 in New York, NY
Height: 5-6, Weight 150
Threw and batted righthanded
Number retired in 1985

Playing 13 years for the Yanks, "Scooter" went to the World Series in 10 of those seasons. That stat may best explain why the diminutive shortstop is regarded as a true Yankee legend. He was a durable, outstanding shortstop, skilled bunter and enthusiastic baserunner with a solid .273 lifetime batting average. In 1950 Rizzuto earned the A.L. MVP Award, batting .324 with 200 hits, 92 bases on balls, and 125 runs scored. He batted .320 in the 1951 World Series and was named Series' MVP. Spent 40 years as a Yankee broadcaster (1957-96). Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1995.

THURMAN MUNSON



Born: June 7, 1947 in Akron, OH
Died: August 2, 1979 in Canton, OH
Height: 5-11, Weight: 190
Batted and threw righthanded
Number retired in 1979

Was the undisputed leader and most respected man on the Yankee teams that won three AL pennants in a row (1976-78) and two World Championships. Munson was a tremendous defensive catcher, winning the Gold Glove Award in three consecutive seasons (1973-75). From 1975-77, Thurman drove in more than 100 runs and hit better than .300 in each of those three seasons. He hit the first Yankee home run in the "new" Yankee Stadium. There is no more tragic date in Yankee history than August 2, 1979. On that date Munson passed away when the plane he was flying crashed while landing.

WHITEY FORD

Born: October 21, 1928 in New York, NY
Height: 5-10, Weight: 181
Threw and batted lefthanded
Number retired in 1974

"The Chairman of the Board" was the ace pitcher on the great Yankee teams of the 1950's and early 60's. The wily southpaw's lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the best percentage (.690) of any 20th century pitcher. He paced the American League in victories three times, and in ERA and shutouts twice. The 1961 Cy Young Award winner still holds many World Series records, including 10 wins, 33 consecutive scoreless innings and 94 strikeouts. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

Born: April 20, 1961 in Evansville, IN
Height: 6-0, Weight: 185
Batted and threw lefthanded
Number retired in 1997

"Donnie Baseball" was only the 10th captain to be named by the Yankees in their storied history. The premier first baseman of his era, Mattingly was a nine-time Gold Glove winner. The 1985 American League MVP set records for most grand slams in a season (6), most home runs in seven consecutive games (9) and eight consecutive games (10). A humble man of grace and dignity, Mattingly carried on the legacy of the pinstripe tradition and dedicated his career to the pursuit of excellence.

ELSTON HOWARD

Born: February 23, 1929 in St. Louis, MO
Died: December 14, 1980 in New York, NY
Height: 6-2, Weight: 196
Batted and threw righthanded
Number retired in 1984

Became the first black player in Yankee history when he made the club in the spring of 1955. The versatile two-time Gold Glove catcher was an important member of the A.L. pennant-winning Yankee teams in nine of his first ten seasons with the club. The 1963 American League MVP, Howard was a clubhouse leader who was respected as both a player and a man. Howard's dignified manner off the field and competitive spirit on the field were positive influences on the Yankee team.

Born: July 30, 1889 in Kansas City, MO
Died: September 29, 1975 in Glendale, CA
Number retired in 1970

In a distinguished 54-year professional career, "The Old Professor" emerged as one of the game's greatest managers. His feat of guiding the Yankees to 10 pennants and seven world titles in a 12-year span ranks as the top managerial accomplishment of all time. Simply put, Casey Stengel was one of the best things to ever happen to the game of baseball. He was an authentic baseball ambassador, making the game fun for millions of Americans. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1966.

Born: May 18, 1946 in Wyncote, PA
Height: 5-10, Weight: 181
Threw and batted lefthanded
Number retired in 1993

One of the game's premier power hitters, "Mr. October" blasted 563 career roundtrippers, sixth all-time. In Game Six of the 1977 World Series, Jackson hit three home runs, all on the first pitch, as the Yankees beat the Dodgers to wrap up the club's first World Championship since 1962. Jackson was an exciting clutch player and an intimidating clean-up hitter with a .490 career slugging percentage. The 1973 American League MVP once said, "Some people call October a time of pressure. I call it a time of character." Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1993.

RON GUIDRY

Born: August 28, 1950 in Lafayette, LA
Height: 5-11, Weight: 165
Threw and batted left-handed
Number retired in 2003

Won 20 games three times, in 1978 (25-3), 1983 (21-9) and 1985 (22-6). Compiled one of the most dominating seasons in baseball history in 1978 and became known as "Louisiana Lightning." He went 25-3 with a 1.74 earned run average in leading the Yankees to a dramatic comeback—from 14.0 games behind the Boston Red Sox—to capture their second straight World Championship. In 1978, he compiled a club-record 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts en route to a unanimous selection as the American League's Cy Young Award recipient. On June 17, 1978 vs. the California Angels at Yankee Stadium, Guidry shattered the club's single-game record for strikeouts with 18. The Yankees' co-captain—with Willie Randolph—from 1986 through his retirement in 1989, he remains in the Top 10 on the Yankees' all-time list in games pitched (368), innings pitched (2392.0), wins (170), winning percentage (.651), strikeouts (1778) and shutouts (26). A four-time American League All-Star.

IMPORTANT DATES IN YANKEES HISTORY

January 9, 1903 - Frank Farrell and Bill Devery purchase the defunct Baltimore franchise of the American League for $18,000 and then move the team to Manhattan.

March 12, 1903 - The New York franchise is approved as a member of the American League. The team will play in a hastily constructed, all-wood park at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site is one of the highest spots in Manhattan, the club will be known as the "Highlanders" and their home field "Hilltop Park."

April 22, 1903 - The Highlanders play their first game, a 3-1 loss at Washington.

April 23, 1903 - The Highlanders record the first win in franchise history, a 7-2 decision at Washington. Harry Howell recorded the win.

April 30, 1903 - The Highlanders notch a 6-2 win vs. Washington in their inaugural home opener at Hilltop Park.

April 11, 1912 - Pinstripes first appear on Highlanders' uniforms, creating a look that would become the most famous uniform design in sports.

April, 1913 - The Highlanders are officially renamed the "Yankees" after moving to the Polo Grounds, home of the National League's New York Giants.

January 11, 1915 - Col. Jacob Ruppert and Col. Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston purchase the Yankees for $460,000.

April 24, 1917 - George Mogridge becomes the first Yankee to throw a no-hitter in a 2-1 win at Fenway Park.

January 3, 1920 - The Yankees purchase the contract of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $125,000 and a $350,000 loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

September, 1921 - The Yankees clinch the first of their 38 A.L. pennants.

May 5, 1922 - Construction begins on Yankee Stadium.

May 21, 1922 - Col. Ruppert buys out Col. Huston for $1,500,000.

April 18, 1923 - Yankee Stadium opens with a 4-1 win over the Boston Red Sox before a reported crowd of 74,200. Babe Ruth hits the Stadium's first home run.

October 15, 1923 - The Yankees defeat the New York Giants, after World Series losses to their cross-town rivals in 1921 and 1922, for the first of 25 World Championships.

BABE RUTH ACQUIRED BY YANKEES

June 1, 1925 - Lou Gehrig begins his record streak of 2,130 consecutive games played, pinch-hitting for Pee Wee Wanniger.

September 30, 1927 - Babe Ruth breaks his own Major-League record with his 60th home run on the season's final day.

April 20, 1928 - The Yankee's sixth season at Yankee Stadium opens with the left-field stands enlarged to three decks.

April 16, 1929 - The Yankees become the first team to make numbers a permanent part of the uniform (numbers would become standard for all teams by 1932).

September 25, 1929 - Manager Miller Huggins, who guided the Yankees to their first six A.L. pennants and three World Championships, dies of blood poisoning.

June 3, 1932 - Lou Gehrig becomes the first player to hit four home runs in a single game in the Yankees' 20-13 win at Philadelphia. He remains the only Yankee to hit four home runs in one game.

July 14, 1934 - Babe Ruth hits the 700th home run of his career off Tommy Bridges in the second inning of a 4-2 Yankees' win at Detroit's Navin Field.

November 21, 1934 - The Yankees purchase Joe DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League for $50,000.

April 20, 1937 - The Yankees' 15th season at Yankee Stadium opens with the right-field stands enlarged to three decks. The wooden bleachers are replaced by a concrete structure with the distance to center field dropping from 490 to 461 feet.

May 30, 1938 - A franchise-record crowd of 81,841 attends a doubleheader sweep of the Boston Red Sox.

May 2, 1939 - Lou Gehrig's playing streak of 2,130 consecutive games ends when he does not make an appearance in a 22-2 Yankees' win at Detroit. Babe Dahlgren plays first base for the Yankees and contributes a double and a home run.

July 4, 1939 - "Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day" is held at Yankee Stadium. His uniform number (4) is the first to be retired in Major League Baseball and Gehrig makes his famous "Today I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech.

May 15, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak begins with a single off Edgar Smith in a 13-1 loss vs. Chicago at Yankee Stadium.

June 2, 1941 - Lou Gehrig dies of Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis at the age of 37.

JOE DiMAGGIO

July 17, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's consecutive-game hitting streak ends at 56 when he goes 0-for-3 in a 4-3 Yankees' win at Cleveland. Indians' third baseman Ken Keltner twice robs DiMaggio of hits with great fielding plays. DiMaggio then hits in the next 16 straight games to give him hits in 72 of 73 games.

January 25, 1945 - Dan Topping, Del Webb and Larry MacPhail purchase the Yankees for $2,800,000 from the estate of the late Col. Jacob Ruppert. MacPhail replaces Ed Barrow as President and General Manager.

May 28, 1946 - The first night game is played at Yankee Stadium and the Yankees suffer a 2-1 loss vs. Washington before 49,917 fans.

April 27, 1947 - "Babe Ruth Day" is celebrated throughout Major League Baseball.

June 13, 1948 - Babe Ruth's uniform number (3) is retired at Yankee Stadium's 25th Anniversary celebration. The Babe makes his final Stadium appearance.

August 16, 1948 - Babe Ruth dies in New York of throat cancer at age 53.

October 12, 1948 - The Yankees announce that Casey Stengel will replace Bucky Harris as manager.

April 17, 1951 - Mickey Mantle makes his Major-League debut, going 1-for-4 in a 4-0 win vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium.

September 28, 1951 - In Game One of doubleheader vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium, Allie Reynolds tosses his second no-hitter of the season (he had previously no-hit the Indians at Municipal Stadium in Cleveland on July 12).

December 12, 1951 - Joe DiMaggio officially announces his retirement.

April 17, 1953 - Exactly two years after his Yankee debut, Mickey Mantle hits what is recognized as the game's first "tape-measure" home run, a 565-foot clout off the Senators' Chuck Stobbs at Washington's Griffith Stadium.

October 5, 1953 - The Yankees win a record fifth consecutive World Championship.

October 8, 1956 - Don Larsen hurls the only perfect game in World Series history, a 2-0 win over Brooklyn in Game Five at Yankees Stadium.

October 1, 1961 - Roger Maris hits his 61st home run in the season's final game to establish a Major-League record.

June 24, 1962 - Jack Reed's two-run, 22nd-inning home run ends the longest game in Yankee history, a 9-7 win at Detroit.

November 2, 1964 - CBS purchases 80% of Yankees for $11,200,000. The network later buys the remaining 20%.

May 14, 1967 – Mickey Mantle becomes only the sixth player—and second Yankee—to reach the 500 home run plateau when he connects off Baltimore's Stu Miller at Yankee Stadium.

June 8, 1969 - "Mickey Mantle Day" is celebrated at Yankee Stadium and his uniform number (7) is retired.

August 8, 1972 - The Yankees sign a 30-year lease to play in a remodeled Yankee Stadium to be completed in 1976.

January 3, 1973 - A limited partnership, headed by George M. Steinbrenner III as its managing general partner, purchases the Yankees from CBS.

September 30, 1973 - Ralph Houk resigns as manager.

April 6, 1974 - The Yankees begin the first of two seasons at Shea Stadium, playing the first home game outside Yankee Stadium since 1922 (go 90-69 there in 1974-75).

December 31, 1974 - Free agent Catfish Hunter signs a then-record five-year contract.

August 1, 1975 - Billy Martin replaces Bill Virdon for his first of five stints as manager.

April 15, 1976 - Remodeled Yankee Stadium opens with an 11-4 win over Minnesota Twins. The Twins' Dan Ford hits the first home run.

October 14, 1976 - Chris Chambliss' ninth-inning home run off Mark Littell in Game Five of the ALCS vs. Kansas City gives the Yankees their 30th pennant.

November 29, 1976 - Free agent Reggie Jackson signs a five-year contract.

October 18, 1977 - Reggie Jackson hits three home runs in Game Six of the World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium.

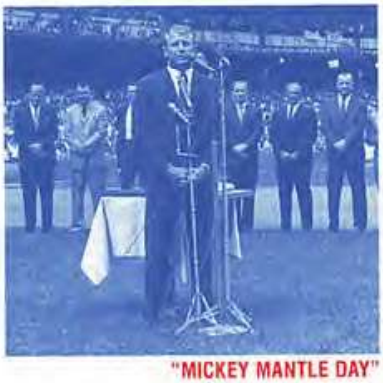
June 17, 1978 - Ron Guidry establishes a franchise record by striking out 18 batters in the Yankees' 4-0 win vs. California at Yankee Stadium.

July 24, 1978 - Billy Martin resigns as manager.

July 25, 1978 - Bob Lemon is named manager, replacing Billy Martin.

July 29, 1978 - On Old Timer's Day, the Yankees announce that Billy Martin will return as Yankee manager in 1980 and Bob Lemon will become general manager.

October 2, 1978 - The Yankees, 14 games behind Boston at one point, defeat the Red Sox, 5-4, at Fenway Park in only the second playoff game in AL history.



"MICKEY MANTLE DAY"

June 18, 1979 - Billy Martin returns as Yankee manager, replacing Bob Lemon.

August 2, 1979 - Yankees Captain Thurman Munson dies in a plane crash in Canton, Ohio, at age 32 (his number "15" is immediately retired).

December 15, 1980 - Free agent Dave Winfield signs a then-record 10-year contract.

September 6, 1981 - Bob Lemon is named manager for second time, replacing Gene Michael.

April 26, 1982 - Gene Michael becomes manager for second time, replacing Bob Lemon.

August 3, 1982 - Clyde King is named Yankee manager, replacing Gene Michael.

July 4, 1983 - Dave Righetti pitches only the sixth regular-season no-hitter in franchise history and the first since 1951, a 4-0 win vs. the Red Sox at Yankee Stadium.

July 24, 1983 - The Yankees and Kansas City play the infamous "Pine Tar" game at Yankee Stadium as George Brett hits a two-out, ninth-inning home run off Goose Gossage to give the Royals an apparent 5-4 lead. The umpires nullify the homer because the pine tar on Brett's bat is above the allowable 18 inches and Brett is called out for using an illegal bat. The Yankees win 4-3 (see August 18, 1983).

REGGIE JACKSON HITS THREE HOME RUNS ON THREE PITCHES IN THE 1977 WORLD SERIES

August 18, 1983 - Kansas City's protest is upheld and the "Pine Tar" game concludes with the Royals winning 5-4. When play is resumed, Yankee pitcher Ron Guidry is in center field for the final out of the top of the ninth while lefthanded first baseman Don Mattingly is at second. Royals' reliever Dan Quisenberry retires the Yankees in order in the bottom of the ninth.

April 28, 1985 - Billy Martin is named manager for fourth time, replacing Yogi Berra.

October 17, 1985 - Lou Piniella is named manager, replacing Billy Martin.

December 14, 1985 - Roger Maris dies at age 51 in Houston, Texas.

July 18, 1987 - Don Mattingly homers off Texas' Jose Guzman to tie Dale Long's Major-League record of hitting a home run in eight consecutive games (Mattingly hits 10 home runs during the streak).

September 29, 1987 - Don Mattingly hits a grand slam off Boston's Bruce Hurst, setting a Major-League record with six grand slams in a season.

June 23, 1988 - Billy Martin is replaced as manager of the Yankees for the fifth and final time. Lou Piniella is named manager for the second time.

December 9, 1988 - The Yankees sign a 12-year television contract with Madison Square Garden Network.

August 18, 1989 - Bucky Dent replaces Dallas Green as Yankee manager.

December 25, 1989 - Billy Martin dies in an automobile accident at age 61.

June 6, 1990 - Stump Merrill replaces Bucky Dent as Yankee manager.

August 14, 1993 - "Reggie Jackson Day," his uniform number (44) retired.

September 4, 1993 - Jim Abbott pitches a 4-0, no-hit win over the Indians at Yankee Stadium.

August 13, 1995 - Mickey Mantle dies of cancer at age 63 in Dallas, Texas.

September 6, 1995 - Lou Gehrig's Major League record of 2,130 consecutive games played is broken when Baltimore's Cal Ripken, Jr. plays in his 2,131st.

May 14, 1996 - Dwight Gooden hurls only the eighth regular-season no-hitter in Yankee history, a 2-0 blanking of the Seattle Mariners at Yankee Stadium.

June 16, 1996 - Mel Allen, the legendary "Voice of the Yankees" from 1939-64, dies at age 83 in Greenwich, Connecticut.

August 25, 1996 - A monument in honor of Mickey Mantle is unveiled in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park.

January 22, 1997 - Don Mattingly officially announces his retirement at a media conference at Yankee Stadium.

May 17, 1998 - David Wells tosses only the 14th regular-season perfect game in baseball history, the first ever by a Yankee.

September 25, 1998 - The Yankees establish an American-League record with their 112th win of the season (a 6-1 win vs. Tampa Bay at Yankee Stadium), breaking the mark of 111 by the 1954 Cleveland Indians (they complete the season with an AL record 114th victory on September 27 vs. Tampa Bay).

October 21, 1998 - The Yankees complete an incredible season with a four-game sweep of the San Diego Padres in the World Series to capture the franchise's 24th World Championship. Their 3-0 win gives the club a record of 125-50 (114-48 in the regular season, 11-2 in postseason).

DAVID CONE THROWS PERFECT GAME

March 8, 1999 - Joe DiMaggio dies at age 84 in Hollywood, Florida.

April 25, 1999 - A monument in honor of Joe DiMaggio is unveiled in Yankee Stadium's Monument Park.

July 18, 1999 - On "Yogi Berra Day," David Cone tosses only the 15th regular-season perfect game in baseball history one season after David Wells accomplishes the feat. Ironically, Don Larsen—who tossed a perfect game in the 1956 World Series—throws out the ceremonial first pitch.

September 9 1999 - Jim "Catfish" Hunter dies at age 53 in Hertford, North Carolina.

AARON BOONE HITS "WALK-OFF" PENNNANT-WINNING HOME RUN

October 27, 1999 - The Yankees play Baseball's last game of the century and complete a four-game sweep of the Atlanta Braves to capture their 25th World Championship.

October 26, 2000 - The Yankees win their third consecutive World Championship with a five-game triumph over the New York Mets in the first "Subway Series" since 1956. The 4-3, 12-inning win in Game One at Yankee Stadium is the club's 13th straight in World-Series play, breaking the record of the 1927, 1928 and 1932 Yankees.

November 1, 2001 - In Game Five of the World Series vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium, Alfonso Soriano's game-winning, 10th-inning single gives the Yankees their second straight come-from-behind win. With game-tying, two-run homers by Tino Martinez (in Game Four) and Scott Brosius (in Game Five), the Yankees became the first team in World-Series history to win two games in the same series when trailing by at least two runs in the ninth inning.

May 17, 2002 - Jason Giambi becomes only the 21st player—and second Yankee—to hit a walk-off grand slam with his team trailing by three runs (Babe Ruth did it on 9/24/25). His 14th-inning slam off Minnesota's Mike Trombley erased a 12-9 Twins' lead to give the Yankees a 13-12 win.

October 16, 2003 – Aaron Boone becomes only the fifth player—and second Yankee—to end a postseason series with a "walk-off" home run when his solo shot to lead off the 11th inning (off Boston's Tim Wakefield) gives the Yankees a seven-game victory in the ALCS and their 39th American-League pennant.

June 15, 2005 – The Yankees announce plans for a new $800-million Yankee Stadium—financed by the Yankees—to be contructed in Macombs Dam- and John Mullaly parks, which are located on the north side of 161st Street (adjacent to the Stadium's current site).

September 25, 2005 – The Yankees conclude their 81-game home schedule at Yankee Stadium with a season attendance of 4,090,696, establishing a single-season American-League record. They became only the third franchise in sports history to reach the four-million mark, joing the Toronto Blue Jays (1992, 1992, 1993) and Colorado Rockies (1993).

INSIDE-THE-PARK HOME RUNS

The Yankees did not hit an inside-the-park home run for the sixth straight season in 2005...their last inside-the-park home run was by Ricky Ledee on 8/29/99 vs. Seattle...it was the Yankees' second inside-the-park home run of the season (also by Chuck Knoblauch on 4/29 at Texas) and marked the first time the Yankees had two inside-the-park homers in the same season since 1990 (Deion Sanders and Alvaro Espinoza)...Knoblauch's inside-the-parker was the first by a Yankee since Derek Jeter on 8/2/96 at Kansas City...Ledee's was the first by a Yankee at Yankee Stadium since 7/17/90 (Deion Sanders vs. Kansas City)...the last inside-the-park home run by an opposing player was by Boston's Trot Nixon on 7/16/05 at Fenway Park.

INSIDE-THE-PARK HOME RUNS BY CURRENT YANKEES

PLAYER	NO.	LAST	SITE	PITCHER
Johnny Damon	1	8/25/99	Kauffman Stadium	Doug Linton (Bal)
Derek Jeter	1	8/2/96	Kauffman Stadium	Jeff Montgomery (KC)
Kelly Stinnett	1	8/29/05	Petco Park	Woody Williams (SD)

YANKEE STADIUM

THE HISTORY OF YANKEE STADIUM

Only a year after they changed Baseball forever with the purchase of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox, the Yankees made another acquisition that would forever change the way the game was watched.

On February 6, 1921, the Yankees issued a press release to announce the purchase of 10 acres of property in the west Bronx. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor for $675,000, sat directly across the Harlem River from the Yankees' current Manhattan home, the Polo Grounds, which they shared unhappily with the landlord Giants of the National League since 1913.

The famous façade—Yankee Stadium's most-recognizable feature—as it appeared upon completion in 1923.

The relationship between the Giants and their tenant crumbled after the 1920 season when Yankee attendance—boosted by their new slugging sensation—doubled to 1,289,422. That was over 100,000 more than the Giants, who, in 1921, notified the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. With their departure from the Polo Grounds now inevitable, Yankee co-owners Jacob Ruppert and Tillinghast l'Hommedieu Huston set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own, Baseball's first triple-decked structure. With an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first to be labeled a "stadium." Original plans of the architect—the Osborne Engineering Company of Cleveland, Ohio—had the Stadium triple-decked and roofed all the way around. An early press release, in fact, described the Yankees' new home as a field enclosed with towering embattlements, rendering the events inside "impenetrable to all human eyes, save those of aviators." But the initial, grand design was quickly scaled back with the triple-decked grandstand not reaching either foul pole. Contrary to the owners' wishes, the action would be more than visible from the elevated trains that passed by the outfield as well as from the buildings that would spring up across River Avenue. Fortunately, a purely decorative element also survived the project's early downsizing and would become the park's most recognizable feature. A 15-foot deep copper facade would adorn the front of the roof which covered much of the Stadium's third deck. It would give Yankee Stadium an air of dignity that no park has possessed—either before or since.

The new stadium would favor left-handed power with the right-field foul pole only 295 feet from home plate (though it would shoot out to 429 by right center). Though the left-field pole measured only 281 feet from the plate, right-handed hitters were neutralized by a 395-foot left field and a whopping 460 to left center. It would also be friendly to patrons, boasting an unheard of "eight toilet rooms for men and as many for women scattered throughout the stands and bleachers." (When the Stadium was remodeled 50 years later, it included more than 50 restrooms.) The club's executive offices would be moved from midtown Manhattan and located between the main and mezzanine decks with an electric elevator connecting them with the main entrance.

The construction contract was awarded to New York's White Construction Co. on May 5, 1922 with the edict that the job must be completed "at a definite price" ($2.5-million) and by Opening Day 1923. Incredibly, it was. In only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox.

Officially, 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium for their first glimpse of Baseball's grandest facility while thousands more milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Before the game began, John Phillip Sousa and the Seventh Regiment Band led both clubs to the flagpole in deep center field where the American flag and the Yankees' 1922 pennant were raised. Appropriately, Babe Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees coasted to a 4-1 win.

Yankee Stadium as it appeared from the air before the triple-decked right-field grandstand was completed in 1937.

Because it was widely recognized that Ruth's tremendous drawing power made the new stadium possible, it would immediately become known as "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 35 World Series and the Yankees won their first World Championship over their former landlord, the Giants. Of course, as the Stadium became the stage for a staggering number of World titles—now totaling 26—it also would become known as "The Home of Champions."

In its early years, when wooden bleachers surrounded the outfield, a grass slope approached the outfield walls from foul pole to foul pole. Outfielders, especially Ruth in right, routinely backed up the small hill to pull down fly balls. Atop the bleachers were advertising signs except for a lone, manually operated, wooden scoreboard in right-center field which was "big enough to record 12 innings for games played by every club in the two major leagues." Over the years, the board would be replaced by more modern models. The Yankees, in fact, would unveil the first electronic message board in 1959.

By 1928, the Stadium was ready for its first major facelift as the triple-deck grandstand in left field was extended beyond the foul pole to its current termination point. The right-field grandstand was extended in 1937, allowing "upper-deck" home runs in both directions. With the '37 expansion of the grandstand, the remaining wooden bleachers were replaced by a concrete structure and the distance to center field dropped from 490 feet to a still-astronomical 461 feet.
Except for the addition of lights in 1946, the look of Yankee Stadium would now remain relatively the same until the winter of 1966-67. Then, under the direction of its new owner, CBS, the 44-year-old facility received a $1.5-million modernization, most of which was spent on paint (90 tons of it). The brown concrete exterior was painted white as was the by-now greenish copper facade. Also, all of the grandstand seats went from green to blue, a color scheme that would be retained when the Stadium was completely remodeled after the 1973 season.

On August 8, 1972, after years of debate about the future of the aging ballpark, the Yankees signed a 30-year lease with the City of New York which called for Yankee Stadium to be completely modernized in time for the 1976 season. After completing the Stadium's 50th-Anniversary season in 1973, the Yankees moved to Shea Stadium for two seasons while their home was almost completely demolished and then rebuilt.

Billed as the world's largest scoreboard in 1959, it came down during renovation after the '73 season. It would be replaced by a 560-foot long board.

The most striking change of the modernization would be the removal of the numerous, obstructive steel columns which supported the second and third decks as well as the roof. By "cantilevering" the upper decks and by lowering the playing field while increasing the slope of the lower stands, sight lines for fans would be dramatically improved. Of course, with the removal of the original roof, the Stadium almost lost its most-recognizable feature: the facade. However, an innovative design concept included an exact replica of the facade atop the new 560-foot-long scoreboard which stretched across the rear of the bleachers. The board would also include baseball's first "telescreen," which could provide instant replays of the action by employing a then-incredible "nine shades of gray."

Yankee Stadium reopened on April 15, 1976 after a two-year renovation.

Yankee Stadium's exterior changed dramatically, too, as three escalator towers were added, one at each of the Stadium's three entrances. And, with 10 additional rows of seats added to the upper deck, the already-grand Stadium would have an even more majestic look.

The remodeled Yankee Stadium opened on April 15, 1976—with the Yankees topping Minnesota 11-4—and, like its predecessor, would host the World Series in its inaugural season. The Stadium, in fact, hosted the Fall Classic in its first three seasons with the Yankees winning back-to-back World titles in 1977 and 1978.

As one of the world's most-prestigious addresses, Yankee Stadium has also been the home of scores of other sports, entertainment and cultural events. While the Yankees were on the road or out of season, the Stadium opened its gates to college and pro football, soccer, political assemblies, religious conventions, concerts and even the circus.

Boxing immediately found a home at Yankee Stadium with Benny Leonard winning a 15-round decision over Lou Tendler for the lightweight title three months after the gates opened on July 24, 1923. Until Muhammed Ali stopped Ken Norton on September 28, 1976, 30 championship fights had been fought at the Stadium between 1923 and 1959; perhaps none more memorable than the one for the heavyweight title between Joe Louis and Germany's Max Schmeling on June 22, 1938. After suffering a knockout loss in the initial non-title encounter at the Stadium two years earlier, Louis—now the heavyweight champ—avenged his defeat with a stunning first-round KO in the rematch.

Football also became an immediate fixture at Yankee Stadium with the 1923 Army-Navy game inaugurating a rich history of collegiate and later professional football matchups. On November 12, 1928, with Notre Dame and Army locked in a scoreless game at halftime, the legendary Knute Rockne made his famous "win one for the Gipper" pep talk and the Fighting Irish went out and beat the Cadets, 12-6.

The New York football Giants also called Yankee Stadium home from 1956 through 1973 and, on December 28, 1958, played in what is widely recognized as "the greatest game ever played." With the NFL championship at stake, a crowd of 64,185 watched the Baltimore Colts tie the game 17-17 on a Steve Myrha field goal with seven seconds left. Eight minutes into professional football's first-ever "sudden-death" overtime period, the Colts' Alan Ameche crashed through from the one yard line, ending a contest that would help establish pro football as a major sport.

The Stadium was also an important stop for religious conventions with the conventions of the Jehovah's Witnesses the major outside activity each year. Beginning in 1950, the convention attracted as many as 123,707 people in a single day—far more than any other Stadium event. On October 4, 1965—with the Yankees out of the World Series for only the third time in 17 years—the Stadium hosted an event of worldwide significance. During the first visit to North America by a Pope, Paul VI celebrated mass before a crowd in excess of 80,000. Fourteen years later, John Paul II also made Yankee Stadium a stop on his tour of the United States.

The Stadium was also home to the New York football Giants from 1956-73.

WHY THE YANKEES?

When the American League moved the Baltimore Orioles to New York for the 1903 season, the club made its home at 168th Street and Broadway, one of the highest spots in Manhattan. The team would, therefore, be known as the "Highlanders" and their field "Hilltop Park." As early as 1905, however, the name "Yankees" began popping up in newspapers whose editors undoubtedly were searching for a shorter name for their headlines. By the time the franchise moved from decaying Hilltop Park to the Polo Grounds in 1913, it officially changed its name to the by then commonly-used "New York Yankees."

THE HISTORY OF THE YANKEE UNIFORM

Jack Chesbro models the franchise's earliest "NY" design in 1903.

What would become the most recognizable insignia in sports—the interlocking "NY"—made its first appearance on the uniforms of the New York Highlanders in 1909. The design was actually created in 1877 by Louis B. Tiffany for a medal to be given by the New York City Police Department to Officer John McDowell, the first NYC policeman shot in the line of duty. Perhaps because one of the club's owners, Bill Devery, was a former NYC police chief, the design was adopted by the Highlanders. It first appeared on both the cap and on the jersey's left sleeve, replacing the separated "N" and "Y" which had appeared on the left and right breast each season since 1903 with the exception of 1905. For that season only, the "N" and "Y" were merged side by side into a monogram on the left breast—actually a forerunner of the now legendary emblem.

In 1912, their final season at Hilltop Park, the Yankees—as they were now commonly known—made a fashionable debut at their home opener on April 11. Their traditional white uniforms were now trimmed with black pinstripes, creating a look that would become the most famous uniform design in sports history. The Yankees, however, were not the first team with pinstripes and would actually abandon the look for the next two seasons. By 1915, though, the pinstripes were back for good and, with the exception of the cap, the uniform would remain relatively unchanged.

Babe Ruth sports the pinstriped-cap look of 1919-21.

Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri display the pre-1936 uniform without jersey insignia.

The Yankees utilized numerous cap designs—including pinstripes—from 1903 until 1922 when they finally settled on a solid navy cap with the interlocking "NY" insignia. Only one more element would now be needed to achieve a look that remains in place today. In 1917, the Yankees removed the "NY" monogram from the jersey and went with a plain, pinstripes-only look. The "NY" remained off the uniform—except for the cap—for the next 20 years until it was reinstated in 1936. The legendary Babe Ruth, therefore, actually played his entire Yankee career without ever wearing the club's now-legendary insignia on his jersey. With the exception of minor alterations—including bolder pinstripes in the forties—the Yankee uniform has remained unchanged for more than 60 years and has, of course, grown into another of the team's great traditions.

YANKEES WERE FIRST TO MAKE UNIFORM NUMBERS PERMANENT

In 1929, the New York Yankees became the first team to make numbers a permanent part of the uniform. Other teams quickly adopted the idea and, by 1932, uniform numbers became standard for all teams. The initial distribution of numbers to the Yankees' roster was made according to the player's position in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore #1, Mark Koenig #2, Babe Ruth #3, Lou Gehrig #4, Bob Meusel #5, Tony Lazzeri #6, Leo Durocher #7, Johnny Grabowski #8, Benny Bengough #9, Bill Dickey #10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared the catching duties).

YANKEE STADIUM'S MONUMENT PARK

Since 1932, the New York Yankees have honored their all-time greats with the dedication of monuments and plaques in the outfield section of Yankee Stadium.

Babe Ruth's monument is dedicated on April 19, 1949.

On May 30, 1932, the first monument was dedicated to the memory of Miller Huggins, who died suddenly in 1929. The diminutive manager guided the Yankees to six American-League pennants and three World Championships in his 11-plus seasons.

The first plaque was placed on the center-field wall in April 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.

Two more monuments followed in 1941 for Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for slugger Babe Ruth. Later plaques were placed in center field for General Manager Edward Barrow (1954) and the Yankees' two great center fielders, Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle (1969). After his death, Mantle's plaque was removed and replaced by a fourth monument in his honor on August 25, 1996. On April 25, 1999, DiMaggio--who passed away less than two months earlier--was honored with the Stadium's fifth monument. (The two plaques which once honored DiMaggio and Mantle--before being replaced by monuments--were donated by the Yankees to the Yogi Berra Museum and Learning Center in Montclair, NJ).

Originally, the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and flag pole were located in straight-away center field on the warning track about 10 feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go through or behind the monuments to retrieve the long drives.

As much of a tradition as the monuments and plaques themselves was the policy of allowing fans to exit Yankee Stadium through the center-field gates via the warning track, pausing and reflecting on the achievements of these great men. When Yankee Stadium was closed for renovations in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to an area off the field between the Yankee and visiting bullpens. However, fans were not allowed to exit via the warning track and viewing of Monument Park was only allowed at a great distance.

In 1976, two more plaques were added to memorialize managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel. In the 1980's, plaques were dedicated to Yankee greats Thurman Munson (1980), Roger Maris and Elston Howard (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986), Lefty Gomez and Whitey Ford (1987), Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1988), and Allie Reynolds (1989). Two recent plaques were dedicated for non-uniformed Yankee legends: the "Voice of the Yankees," Mel Allen, on July 25, 1998; and the "Voice of Yankee Stadium," public-address announcer Bob Sheppard, on May 7, 2000. Reggie Jackson (2002), Ron Guidry (2003) and Red Ruffing (2004) are the most-recent Yankee greats to be honored with plaques in Monument Park. Plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope John Paul II in 1979 were dedicated by the Knights of Columbus.

In 1985, after the left-center-field fence was moved in, the Yankees were able to open the Monument Park area for fan viewing. Long lines and increased fan interest caused the Yankees to move the fence in further in 1988 and expand the Monument Park area. The Yankees have included a special walkway honoring those Yankees who have their uniform numbers retired.

In a pregame ceremony on September 11, 2002, the Yankees dedicated a monument in remembrance of the victims and heroes of the 9/11 tragedy. It was the sixth monument dedicated in Yankee Stadium and the first to non-Yankee personnel.

BOB SHEPPARD
"THE VOICE OF YANKEE STADIUM"

As synonymous with Yankee Stadium as the copper facade and Monument Park, Bob Sheppard celebrates his 55th anniversary as the public address announcer in 2006.

The legendary "Voice of Yankee Stadium," who has also been dubbed the "Voice of God" by generations of admiring players and fans, began his tenure with the Yankees on April 17, 1951 with Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle sharing the outfield on Opening Day for the only time in their careers.

Sheppard's incredible career behind the microphone actually started when he volunteered his services for a charity football game in Freeport, Long Island in the late 1940's. A former collegiate and semi-pro athlete who was then working as a high-school speech teacher, Sheppard's background certainly made him a natural for the public-address role as did his love of sports.

An executive from the Brooklyn Dodgers football team of the All-America Conference was at the game, liked Sheppard's style ("clear, concise and correct") and hired him. The football Dodgers folded after only one season at Ebbets Field (1948), but one of their opponents—the New York Yankees—heard Sheppard's booming voice and offered their PA job at Yankee Stadium. Baseball's Yankees then heard him and offered him the same role for them for the 1950 season. But Sheppard's teaching schedule could not accommodate the 77-game home schedule for baseball (plus World Series games) and he turned down the offer.

"You must remember that in those days there were a lot of afternoon games," Sheppard said. "It was just not possible to do both things."

But the Yankees were persistent and again offered the PA job to Sheppard for the 1951 season with one attractive addition. The Yankees would allow Sheppard to hire a replacement for any games he would have to miss. And the rest, as they say, is history.

"A temporary job," Sheppard said, "that has lasted a half century."

And in the 55 years since Sheppard announced his first lineups, few things in sports have changed as little as Sheppard's distinctive voice and style.

"My style has not changed at all," Sheppard said. "This is how I speak. I speak the same way at home, in the classroom and at church where I'm a lector. I don't change it in the announcer's booth."

Sheppard's unique style has not been limited to Yankee games. In addition to more than 4,400 baseball games (including an incredible 119 post-season contests), Sheppard was also the public-address voice for the football Giants for 50 seasons—from their move to Yankee Stadium in 1956 until his retirement after the 2005 season.

Among the events he lists as the most-memorable of his incredible career are: Don Larsen's perfect game in Game Five of the 1956 World Series on October 8, 1956; Roger Maris' 61st home run on October 1, 1961; Reggie Jackson's three home runs in Game Six of the 1977 World Series on October 18, 1977; and the Giants-Colts overtime NFL Championship Game on December 28, 1958.

Sheppard has also served the New York Titans of the American Football League at the Polo Grounds, the New York Stars of the World Football League at Downing Stadium as well as the New York Cosmos (soccer) and St. John's University basketball and football games. Sheppard also handled the PA duties for five Army-Navy games in Philadelphia.

Two events at Yankee Stadium in which Sheppard would have enjoyed being a part were the two Papal Masses in 1965 and 1979. "I offered my services," Sheppard said, "but they were declined."

Over the years, the eloquent linguist has also written and delivered hundreds of moving tributes and eulogies to departed legends ranging from Mickey Mantle (1995) and Joe DiMaggio (1999) to those lost in the attacks of September 11, 2001 to Ray Charles (2004) and former President Ronald Reagan (2004).

"There are three things that are perfectly Yankee—the pinstripes, the logo and Bob Sheppard. When I go to heaven, I want Bob Sheppard to introduce me...the comedian...Billy Crystal...the comedian."

—Billy Crystal

In 1998, Sheppard was presented with the prestigious William J. Slocum "Long and Meritorious Service" award by the New York chapter of the BBWAA as well as the "Pride of the Yankees" award by the ball club. He was even honored with a ceremonial first pitch before Game Two of the 1998 World Series at Yankee Stadium (he recorded his own introduction). And, during his 50th season as the Yankees' PA announcer in 2000, he presented his most-recent Yankee-Stadium microphone to the Baseball Hall of Fame during induction ceremonies in Cooperstown, NY. The native New Yorker has also been elected to the St. John's University Sports Hall of Fame, the Long Island Sports Hall of Fame and the New York Sports Hall of Fame. He has been awarded honorary doctorates from St. John's University (Pedagogy) and Fordham University (Rhetoric).

In one of the game's truly memorable moments, Sheppard introduced President George W. Bush before Game Three of the 2001 World Series (on October 30) as Mr. Bush became the first sitting President to throw out a ceremonial first pitch at Yankee Stadium.

BOB SHEPPARD'S FIVE FAVORITE NAMES

5. Alvaro Espinoza
4. Jose Valdivielso
3. Salome Barojas
2. Shigetoshi Hasegawa
1. Mickey Mantle

"Mickey Mantle was the perfect name. Both names starting with the same letter. I just loved announcing his name. And one day, shortly before he died, we were both being interviewed on a television program. All of a sudden, he turned to me and said—right there on the air—that every time he heard me announce his name, he got goose bumps. And I felt the same way about announcing him."

Sheppard has also made cameo appearances in numerous motions picture and television shows, including 61*, It's My Turn, It Could Happen to You, Anger Management, Seinfeld and Mad About You.

Not bad for a part-time job.

"Most men go to work, but I go to a game," Sheppard said. "How many men would love to do that?"

THE VOICES BEFORE SHEPPARD: CASE CLOSED?

Hard to believe, but Bob Sheppard is not the only Public Address Announcer in Yankee Stadium's fabled history. But no one—not even Sheppard himself—could remember who immediately preceded the current Stadium P.A. Announcer behind the microphone. Afterall, the last game by this mystery man would have been 56 years ago, probably the fourth and final game of the 1950 World Series between the Yankees and Philadelphia's "Whiz Kids" Phillies.

But, after years of search and research, the answer may have turned up last year in the transcript of an interview conducted in 1991 by writer Paul Doherty with Don Carney, the producer-director of Yankees telecasts for more than three decades.

Extolling Sheppard's longevity, Carney told Doherty that "Bob's been around forever. He followed Red Patterson, who was the club's Public Relations Director and also did the P.A."

Red Patterson: The man who preceded Sheppard.

Carney's words give not only the answer but may also explain the mystery. Sheppard's predecessor was widely but anonymously quoted in the newspapers for an infamous gaffe he made during a Yankees-Philadelphia Athletics game on May 31, 1946. "Will the spectators in the front row please remove their clothing..." he began, with the rest of his announcement: "from the front railing," drowned out by the crowd's laughter.

The story got into the papers, but the identity of the speaker did not. Of course, it didn't. The writers didn't want to embarrass their main conduit for information about the club!

Additional research shows that Yankee Stadium was the last ballpark in the Majors to install a public-address system. It debuted in Game Three of the 1936 World Series and was manned by Jack Lenz and George Levy, two veterans of the time when information was still relayed to the crowd by megaphone.

The careers of Lenz and Levy began in 1915 when the Yankees and Giants shared the Polo Grounds. When the Yankees hopped across the Harlem River in 1923, Levy stayed with the Giants while Lenz took the Yankee post. "I grabbed the offer," Lenz said. "Who wouldn't, with the old Bambino holding forth at the Stadium?"

To do his job, Lenz sat in a box alongside the Yankees' dugout (then on the third-base side of Yankee Stadium) and shouted the batting orders and batteries (each team's pitcher and catcher) as well as the changes throughout the game. Unlike today, players were not announced each time they came to bat and Lenz was called upon only when a change was made.

Jack Lenz: "The little man with the big voice."

According to a feature article which appeared in the New York Evening News in the early thirties to celebrate a career of more than 2,000 consecutive games, Lenz—the "mild-mannered megaphone man"—would receive the lineups and batting orders from both managers approximately 15 minutes before the start of the game (3:15 p.m. in those days). After telephoning the press box with the "necessary dope," Lenz would pick up his megaphone and shout the batting orders and batteries. He directed his voice first toward the bleachers, then to the upper tiers of the grandstand and again to the lower stands.

Due to the vast size of their new ballpark, the Yankees actually began the 1927 season with two public address announcers to service Yankee Stadium. After the idea proved successful before a crowd of more than 65,000 on Opening Day, the "two-ply announcer system" of Lenz and Levy was used again for the second game when the crowd was only about 7,000. The experiment was likely short lived.

KIMBERLY JONES

Kimberly Jones returns for her second season as the Yankees pre- and post-game clubhouse reporter.

Jones previously spent four-and-a-half years at The Star Ledger (Newark, N.J.), where she covered the New York Giants for three seasons and was an NFL columnist for one season. During the 2005 NFL season, she continued to contribute as the Ledger's Sunday NFL notes columnist and also was an NFL contributor on "Out of Bounds" on CN8, The Comcast Network.

Prior to moving to New Jersey, Jones worked at the Centre Daily Times (State College, Penn.) where she was the beat writer for Penn State football and men's basketball.

Jones graduated from Penn State with a B.A. in journalism and an M.S. in exercise and sport science. Following her graduation, she completed a one-year internship in the communications department of the Big Ten Conference in suburban Chicago. A native of Dallastown, Penn., she currently lives in Bergen County, N.J.

JIM KAAT

Former Major League pitcher Jim Kaat is the Yankees game analyst for the YES Network and WWOR UPN9. Kaat has established himself over the past 20 years as one of the most well respected analysts in the game of baseball.

In 1995, while at the MSG Network, Kaat was nominated for a New York Emmy Award in the "On Camera Achievement" category. In 1996, and 1998, respectively, he was a member of the broadcast team that won New York Emmy Awards for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage—Single Program" for coverage of Dwight Gooden's no-hitter and David Wells' perfect game. In 1998, MSG's Yankees telecasts also won the New York Emmy for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage Series—Professional."

Kaat previously spent one year as the chief analyst on ESPN's "Baseball Tonight". He also served as the primary analyst for CBS Sports when they held the rights to Major League Baseball from 1989 through 1993.

During the strike season of 1981, Kaat began his baseball broadcasting career as an analyst working for the Home Team Sports Network, covering minor league games before resuming his playing career for two additional seasons. In 1984 and 1985, Kaat was the chief correspondent for ABC's "Good Morning America", and covered the World Series. During the 1986 season, he was the analyst and play-by-play announcer for WPIX-TV, covering 100 New York Yankees games.

The following year, he handled a variety of analyst duties with WTBS (in Atlanta), ESPN and NBC Sports. While in Atlanta, he also did play-by-play and analyst work for WSB-AM radio. In 1988, Kaat covered Olympic baseball on NBC and handled spring training, feature sports, the college World Series and the Major League playoffs and World Series for ESPN. During the same season, Kaat was the primary analyst for 75 Minnesota Twins games on the CBS affiliate WCCO-TV before moving to CBS Sports.

Kaat, who has served as the president of the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association, pitched professionally from 1957 through 1983. He reached the big leagues in 1959 with the Washington Senators and went on to play for the Minnesota Twins, Chicago White Sox, Philadelphia Phillies, New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals. Kaat was a member of six divisional champions, two pennant winners and the 1982 World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

An avid golfer and fan of horse racing, Kaat lives with his wife MaryAnn in Stuart, Fla. He has four children: Jim Jr., Jill, Stacey and Drew.

BOBBY MURCER

Bobby Murcer wore the No. 1 on his jersey when he played centerfield for the New York Yankees. Today, more than 20 years later, Murcer is one of the Yankees' premier television announcers and is still one of their most popular personalities.

Murcer was born in Oklahoma City, Okla., the same state as his boyhood idol Mickey Mantle. In 1965 at the age of 19 years old, Murcer joined the Yankees as the heir apparent to Mantle. He was an American League All-Star for five straight seasons from 1971 through 1975.

Murcer was traded to the San Francisco Giants in 1976 for Bobby Bonds. Two years later he would star for the Chicago Cubs. Midway through the 1979 season, Murcer was traded back to the Yankees.

Over his 17-year career Murcer played in 1,908 games, batting .277 with 252 home runs and 1,043 RBI. He joined Lou Gehrig as the only Yankees players to hit home runs in four consecutive at-bats.

His most memorable at-bat was in August 1979, when he had the game-winning hit against the Baltimore Orioles. Earlier that day, the Yankees buried their captain and Murcer's best friend, Thurman Munson, who had died in a plane crash.

In 1983, to make room on the roster for rookie first baseman Don Mattingly, Murcer retired and joined the Yankees' broadcast team. Recently, Murcer celebrated his 22nd season as a Yankees announcer and his 38th overall year with the Yankees.

For five decades whether it was on the field as a player, or in the broadcast booth as an announcer, Murcer has always exuded class, charisma, personality and ultimate professionalism.

Currently, Murcer is one of the most well-known and prominent members of the YES Network broadcast team. He serves as a game analyst and hosts pre- and post-game programs as well. During his broadcasting career, Murcer has been recognized for his excellence, winning three Emmys.

Murcer is also an accomplished public speaker, fundraiser and chairman of BAT (Baseball Assistance Team).

MICHAEL KAY

As the play-by-play announcer for the YES Network and WWOR UPN9, Michael Kay immerses himself in all things New York in order to provide his listeners and viewers with original opinions and the most exclusive, up-to-the-minute Yankees information. Additionally, Kay is the host of YES' CenterStage, an interview show with superstars of sports and entertainment, and hosts his own radio talk show on ESPN 1050 AM in New York.

Before joining the YES Network, Kay worked at the MSG Network since 1989 as a Yankees reporter. In 1992, he added the assignment of Knicks locker room reporter to his responsibilities, and continued in that role until the 1998-99 season.

In addition to his television work, the Bronx native also worked as a Yankees analyst on WABC Radio since 1992. Kay was a winner with Bob Goldscholl (WBBR) for "Best Sports Reporter" at the 2000 New York Metro Achievement in Radio Awards. After the Yankees World Series victories in 1996, 1998 and 2000, Kay and radio partner John Sterling were asked by New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani to host the post parade victory celebration at City Hall.

In 1998, Kay also began co-hosting "Sports Talk with John Sterling and Michael Kay", a MSG produced nightly sports radio call-in show, which aired on WABC Radio during the winter months. During the baseball season, Kay and Sterling hosted "Yankee Talk" which aired 90 minutes prior to all weekend Yankees games.

Kay graduated from Fordham University in 1982 with a B.A. in communications. While at Fordham, he honed his skills working for the school newspaper and radio station, working at SportsPhone and as the public address announcer for the New York Pro Summer Basketball League.

In 1982, Kay landed the job as general assignment writer for the New York Post. Two years later he began covering college basketball (1984-85) and then the New Jersey Nets, who he covered for two seasons before becoming the newspaper's general basketball writer. In 1987, he was moved to baseball, serving as the Yankees beat reporter. While he was in that position, he got his first television job as the host of the "Hot Stove League" segment of MSG's "SportsNight".

Kay moved from the Post to the New York Daily News in 1989, still covering the Yankees, and served in that capacity until 1992. In October 1991, he broke the story of Buck Showalter's hiring for the News. Four years later for MSG, Kay tracked Yankees managerial contract developments from the time Showalter started talking about returning to his eventual signing with the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Kay hosted a sports talk show for WABC Radio from 1992-93. He rejoined the Daily News to pen "The Kay Korner" in 1993.

Kay was given the Dick Young award for Excellence in Sports Media by the New York Pro Baseball Scouts in 1995. He was also a part of the Yankees/MSG production team that was nominated for New York Emmy Awards for six consecutive years. In 1998, he was on the MSG team that won for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage—Series". In 1996 and 1997, he was a member of the MSG team that won New York Emmys for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage—Single Program" for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter and "The Battle for New York: Yankees vs. Mets". Kay is single and resides in Hartsdale, N.Y.

PAUL O'NEILL

Paul O'Neill returns for a fifth consecutive season in broadcast television in 2006, serving as an analyst for the YES Network. The gritty and revered five-time All-Star outfielder played 17-years in the Major Leagues, spending his final nine seasons in pinstripes. O'Neill was a pillar in the Yankees' run to four world championships, his passionate play embodying a team-first formula that led to unequaled success.

Affectionately known as a warrior to most Yankee followers, O'Neill began his Major League career in 1985 with the Cincinnati Reds, earning the first of his five World Series championships in 1990. He joined the Yankees in 1993 after eight seasons with the Reds, and in 1994 claimed the American League batting title with a .359 average.

In 2001—at the age of 38—O'Neill became the oldest player in Major League history to steal 20 bases and hit 20 home runs in the same season. He lives in his native Cincinnati with his wife Nevalee and their three children: Andrew, Aaron and Alexandra.

KEN SINGLETON

YES Network's game analyst Ken Singleton had a 15-year major league career as an outfielder and designated hitter. Known on the diamond as a consistent power hitter, Singleton has proven to be equally as reliable since joining the radio and television broadcast booths.

Previously, Singleton divided his time by calling play-by-play and providing commentary at the MSG Network. In 1998, he was part of MSG's production team that won four New York Emmys for its Yankees coverage.

Singleton joined the MSG Network in 1997 from the Sports Network (TSN), where he served as an analyst for the Montreal Expos from 1985 through 1996. From 1991 through 1996, he also provided play-by-play and served as an analyst for CIQC Radio, the Expos' flagship radio network. In 1996 and 1997, he was named by FOX Sports as a lead analyst for Saturday afternoon baseball broadcasts. In 1997 and 1998, he worked as an analyst for Major League Baseball International.

Singleton, a native New Yorker, played both baseball and basketball in high school, and also played baseball in the Bronx Federation League at Macombs Dam Park across the street from Yankee Stadium. After earning a scholarship to play basketball at Hofstra University, and playing both sports for one year, Singleton was drafted by the New York Mets.

In April 1972, he was traded to the Expos with Mike Jorgenson and Tim Foli for Rusty Staub. It was in Montreal that Singleton had his first of many productive seasons, hitting 23 home runs with 103 RBI and a .302 batting average. In 1974, he was traded to the Baltimore Orioles with Mike Torrez for Dave McNally and two other players.

A three-time All-Star, Singleton is one of only six players in Major League history to hit 35 or more switch-hit homers in a season. He also ranks among the all-time leaders in most Baltimore offensive categories, including homers, RBI, and total bases. He was a member of the Orioles' 1983 World Series championship and retired after the 1984 season.

Singleton enjoys golf and reading historical novels. He lives with his wife Suzanne in Sparks, Md. and has three sons and a daughter.

JOHN STERLING

"Yankees win! Theeeeeee Yankees win!"

If anything has become synonymous with the Yankees' run of success over recent years, it is John Sterling's memorable conclusion to so many Yankees victories. And as the radio voice to 162 games a year, plus preseason and postseason, he has called more than 2,800 games over the last 16 seasons, without missing one, making him one of the most recognized—and imitated voices—in all of New York sports.

Sterling joined the Yankees broadcast team in 1989 from Atlanta's TBS and WSB Radio, where he called Atlanta Hawks (1981 through 1989) and Atlanta Braves games (1982 through 1987). But it was really a return to the town where he first achieved fame— hosting a talk show on WMCA from 1971 through 1978, and calling New Jersey Nets games (1975 through 1980, and as a fill-in, in 1997) and New York Islanders games (1975 through 1978) for WMCA, WVNJ, WOR-TV and SportsChannel—that his career took off.

Sterling has also broadcast Morgan State Football (eight years), and did Washington Bullets basketball in 1981. In addition to his seven years at WMCA and a year at WSB in Atlanta, he has also hosted talk shows on WFAN, and WABC in New York. He has not missed a broadcast since the fall of 1981.

As the host of the YES Network's acclaimed "Yankeeography" series, Sterling won two Emmy awards in 2003. He has also been honored by the New Jersey Sportswriters Association with its Radio-TV Excellence award (1999), and was the winner of the 2001 Whitney Radio Jimmy Cannon Award. In addition, his call of a Jason Giambi home run on WCBS radio in 2002 was voted the "best baseball call" of the year in a poll conducted by MLB.com. In 2002, Sterling was also honored by the New York Air Awards for being part of the best play-by-play team on radio.

When he's not in the booth, Sterling also serves as a master of ceremonies for major Yankees events. He is also well known for his MC work at City Hall, with his longtime radio partner Michael Kay, at "Key to the City" ceremonies following Yankees World Series victories.

For the past eight years, he has been a spokesman for the Leukemia Society of America. He lives in Bergen County, N.J., and is the proud father of four children: daughter Abigail and triplets, Veronica, Bradford and Derek.

SUZYN WALDMAN

An award winning journalist, Suzyn Waldman joined John Sterling in the radio booth as the Yankees' color commentator on WCBS-AM radio in 2005, becoming the first woman to hold a full-time position as a Major League broadcaster. Waldman has spent the greater part of two decades overcoming all the obstacles that go along with being a female sports broadcaster, and has risen to the top of her profession.

In 1987, Waldman became the first female voice heard on WFAN, the first all-sports radio station in the country, and was a mainstay on that station for almost 15 years, creating the job of the radio beat reporter, covering both the New York Yankees and New York Knicks. Her news-breaking reports, exclusive interviews and always original and controversial opinions won her countless journalism awards. Among her accolades include, the International Radio Award for her live and emotional reporting from the upper deck of Candlestick Park during the 1989 San Francisco earthquake, the 1996 New York Sportscaster of the Year Award by The National Sportscasters & Sportswriters and the American Women in Radio and TV's Star Award for Radio in 1999. Waldman became a popular talk show host at WFAN and co-hosted the coveted mid-day slot until leaving WFAN to join the YES Network.

The word "first" invariably precedes the name of Suzyn Waldman in every facet of her television and radio career. The first woman to work on a nationally televised baseball broadcast, Waldman added another first, being the first woman to provide play-by-play coverage for a Major League team, when she started broadcasting New York Yankees games for WPIX, the MSG Network and WNYW/FOX5 in the mid '90s. The first and only woman ever to host an NBA pre-game and post-game show, working in that capacity for the New York Knicks on WFAN, Waldman provided play-by-play coverage for the WNBA on Lifetime TV and was an analyst for St. John's University basketball games for MSG and WFAN.

She has been honored by countless organizations, including the Thurman Munson Foundation, the March of Dimes, the B'nai B'rith, the Jimmy Fund of Boston, the New York Baseball Scouts and the US Federal Women's Program for her contributions as a role model and a pioneer in women's sportscasting. She is a tireless motivational speaker at schools and cancer centers around the country, encouraging young women to pursue their dreams despite any pitfalls they may encounter.

Waldman's life and struggles have been the subject of hundreds of magazine and newspaper articles, and chapters in books, including the "MacMillan Book of Baseball Stories," "You Go Girl" and "That's Outside My Boat" both by Charlie Jones and Kim Doran. She has been profiled on the Today Show, CBS Evening News with Dan Rather, ABC's 20/20 and NBC's Dateline.

A native Bostonian with a degree in Economics from Boston's prestigious Simmons College, Waldman spent 15 years on the Broadway musical stage, and starred opposite Richard Kiley in "Man of La Mancha" for two years. She now lives in Westchester, N.Y. with her German Shepards, Kiley and A.J.

Brian Fergenson enters his 26th consecutive season as the producer/engineer for Yankees radio broadcasts.

ROLLS, Damian – INF

HT: 6-2; WT: 210; B: R; T: R; BORN: 9/15/77 in Manhattan, KS; RESIDES: Tampa, FL; HIGH SCHOOL: F. L. Schlagle (KS) HS; OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent on 1/21/05; M.L. SVC: 4.019; CAREER NOTES: 2005: In his first season in the Yankees' organization, had his playing time hampered by nagging injuries and batted .261 (23-for-88) in just 25 games with Triple-A Columbus...was invited to spring training as a non-roster invitee and batted .104 (5-for-48) in 26 games played...made three stints on the disabled list: from 4/16-25 with a strained left groin, from 4/29-5/18 with a strained left hamstring and again from 6/6-7/23 with a hamstring strain...was released by the Yankees on 7/23...2004: Hit .162 (19-for-172) with 9 RBI in three stints with the Devil Rays...started 28 games (14 starts at third base, one at second base, three in right field, four in centerfield and six in left field) and appeared in 51 games overall...hit .278 (27-for-97) with 3HR and 14RBI in 23 games for Durham playing mostly centerfield...his double on 4/21 at Baltimore ended a string of 34 innings and 113 AB without an extra-base hit...saw action at first base on 8/14 at Texas, the only time he's played there in his Major League career...began the season as the Rays' Opening Day third baseman after hitting .327 in the Spring, tying him for tops on the club...optioned to Triple-A Durham on 5/5 following an 0-for-20 skid...recalled 5/11 when Eduardo Perez was placed on the disabled list...had three hits on 5/13 vs. Texas, a season-high he would match twice (7/7, 9/9)...was placed on the disabled list with a chest contusion following a collision on 5/23 with Jose Cruz, Jr. in short right field...missed 34 games...spent a stint with Durham on rehabilitation...had a season-high 3RBI on 7/7 at Baltimore and matched his season high with three hits...optioned to Triple-A again on 7/17 when Joey Gathright and Jorge Cantu were promoted...recalled a third time on 8/1 for the remainder of the season...2003: Split time between Tampa Bay and Triple-A Durham...with Tampa hit .255 (95-for-373) with 7HR and 46RBI...started 96 games (68 games at third base, 23 games in right field, and 5 games in right field)...also appeared in two games at second base...batted everywhere in the lineup except third and fourth...made Rays' Opening Day roster and appeared in 15 games, 7 starts, before heading to the disabled list after suffering a fractured tip of his right thumb on 4/22 vs. Toronto diving for a ball in the outfield...reinstated 5/27 and optioned to Triple-A Durham...was recalled on 6/13 and started 89 of the club's remaining 98 games, 68 at third base...made only six errors in 216 chances at third base, a .972 fielding percentage...among AL third baseman with 200 or more chances, only two had a higher fielding percentage—Joe Randa of Kansas City (.980) and Corey Koskie of Minnesota (.973)...batted .290 with men on base as opposed to .227 when they were empty...was 5-for-11 with the bases loaded, tied with Texas' Rafael Palmeiro for 10th best in the American League...batted .330 (32-for-97) in 25 games between 7/24 and 8/19...included in that stretch was a career-high 11-game hit streak (7/26-8/6)...had 3H and a career-high 5RBI on 7/24 at Boston and hit the first grand slam of his career (off Chad Fox)...became the second Devil Ray to hit a grand slam at Fenway Park (Greg Vaughn 6/26/01)...on 6/23, became just the 11th player to hit two home runs in one game against Roger Clemens...Rolls later doubled off Clemens and became just the 3rd player to get 3 extra base hits off Clemens in the same game (credit: Elias Sports Bureau)...Rolls had only 2 career home runs in 392 career at-bats before that game and none in his previous 176...drove in all four Rays' runs in the their 4-2 win over the Yankees...also tied Rays club record with 10 total bases...2002: Spent majority of the season with Triple-A Durham before being called-up to Tampa Bay on 9/3...hit .292 (26-for-89) in 21 games with the Devil Rays...while with Durham hit .266 (65-for-244) with 6HR and 35RBI...also played two games with Double-A Orlando...started 21 of the Rays' final 25 games (13 in right field, four in left field and four in center field)...in 9/3 game vs. Anaheim he collected hits in his first 3AB, including a pair of doubles...played predominantly centerfield at Triple-A Durham (43 games), but also saw action at left field, right field, third base and designated hitter...was placed on the disabled list from 5/30-8/12 with a right thumb sprain he suffered sliding into second base on 5/29 at Scranton Wilkes-Barre...had a season-best 10-game hit streak up until the injury...hit .359 (14-for-39) during the streak...hit .207 (17-for-82) in the season's opening month, then hit at a .308 clip the rest of the way (48-for-156)...in just his third game since returning from the disabled list, 8/20 at Norfolk, went 4-for-5 in a 6-3 Bulls victory...hit .357 (15-for-42) with runners in scoring position and 2 outs...played winter ball for Santurce in Puerto Rico...2001: In his first full Major League season he hit .262 (62-for-237) with 11 doubles, 2HR, 12RBI and 12 SB in 74 games with Tampa Bay...ranked seventh among American League rookies in hitting...his 12SB tied Randy Winn for second on the club beind Jason Tyner (31)...tied for fifth among American League rookies...was only caught stealing 4 times all season...began the season 8-for-8 until he was gunned down on 5/23 by Texas' Ivan Rodriguez...showed his versatility by making 57 starts at four different positions (39 at 2b, one at 3b, four in left field and 13 in center field)...his last 17 starts came in the outfield...started just five of the Rays' first 38 games... made his first Major League start 4/22 vs. Baltimore (2B) and went 1-for-4, collecting his first extra-base hit with a double in his first AB off Jose Mercedes...was inserted into starting lineup when Russ Johnson was placed on the disabled list on 5/16 and started 33 of the next 36 games (all at 2b), hitting .266 (34-for-128) over that stretch...hit his first Major League home run 5/22 vs. Texas (off Jeff Brantley) in his 56th big league AB...was hitting .304 (38-for-125) on 6/15, but batted just .214 (24-for-112) the rest of the way...made his outfield debut 7/8 vs. Florida as a defensive replacement in centerfield...broke up Mark Buehrle's no-hit bid on 8/3 at in the seventh inning with a single...hit his second home run off of Buehrle on 8/24 at home...went 154AB in between homers...started just 18 of the season's final 88 games and went 21-for-85 (.247)...had only 85AB over the final 100 days of the season...2000: Spent most of an injury-plagued season with Double-A Orlando where he hit .255 (13-for-51)...went on the disabled list on 3/31 recovering from right shoulder surgery...returned to the Devil Rays from his rehabilitation assignment on 9/1 and was reinstated from the 60-day disabled list...appeared in four games for the Rays, three as a pinch-hitter and one as a defensive replacement...made his Major League debut on 9/3 vs. Kansas City as a pinch-hitter (struck out)...made his lone appearance in the field 9/9 at Oakland (3B)...collected his first Major League hit 9/28 vs. New York (off Craig Dingman), a single, pinch-hitting for Fred McGriff...1999: Spent the entire season at Class-A Vero Beach, his fourth season with the Dodgers' organization...hit a career-best .297 (141-for-474) while also establishing personal bests in runs (68), hits (141), doubles (26), home runs (9), RBI (54) and stolen bases (24)...his batting average tied him for 10th best among all Class-A third basemen...after going 0-for-4 on Opening Day, he ran off a hitting-streak of 14 straight games, his season high (.448, 26-for-58)...had another stretch from 7/15-8/5 in which he hit safely in 19 of 21 games (.365, 31-for-85), raising his average 16 points from .293 to .309...average was under .300 only 24 days the entire season...finished at .297 after going 18 for his final 81 at-bats (.222)...1998: Began the year with Class-A Vero Beach where he hit .244 (65-for-266) while...collected 30RBI in his 73 games there...did not commit an error in 20 consecutive games from 4/25-5/15...earned a promotion to Double-A San Antonio after hitting .262 in May and .282 in June...replaced Adrian Beltre at third base following Beltre's promotion to Los Angeles...had a combined 13 stolen bases in 16 attempts...1997: Appeared in 30 games at Class-A Savannah...batted .211 (100-for-475) with 17 doubles, 5 triples, 5HR and 47RBI in 475 at-bats...swiped 11 bases in 14 attempts...1996: Began his professional career at Class-A Yakima...batted .265 (68-for-257) in 66 games with 4HR and 27RBI...named Northwest player-of-the-week from 8/26-9/2...PERSONAL: Attended F.L. NEW YORK YANKEES FAN GUIDE TO YANKEE STADIUM

■ Prohibited Items

The following items are not permitted into Yankee Stadium: bottles, cans, coolers or containers, briefcases, attaché bags or any type of large bag, noise makers or laser pointers. The New York Yankees will not store any of the aforementioned. All bags should be left at home/work. Signs are posted at each gate and in parking lots to inform guests of this policy. If any of these items are discovered in the Stadium, they will be disposed of in the nearest trash receptacle. This will be in effect for the duration of the 2004 season.

■ Banners and Signs

The following rules apply to the display of these items:

1. They may not be hung in fair territory or any part of the playing field or as to obstruct the view of fans or Stadium signage.
2. They may only be held up in, or paraded through, the general seating area between innings.
3. The use of weights of any kind to keep a banner or sign in place is strictly prohibited.

NOTE: If any banner or sign interferes with the sight line of the players, the umpires may request its removal.

■ Monument Park

Contains historic monuments and plaques dedicated to former New York Yankees greats—Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Mickey Mantle, Joe DiMaggio, Yogi Berra, Whitey Ford, Reggie Jackson, Don Mattingly, Elston Howard, etc. Monument Park is open from the time the gates open until 45 minutes prior to the game start time. Access is via the staircase at the end of the aisles between the Field and Main Level seats, Sec. 36. Monument Park is closed between doubleheaders and during inclement weather. Wheelchair access is via the elevator in Section 24.
